

Farmers treated better than individual taxpayer — Cruse

Urban taxpayers of Madison County are not being treated fairly while the county is "bending over backwards" to help farmers pay lower taxes, Granite City Tax Assessor Von Dee Cruse charged Thursday afternoon.

Cruse said that when the county or township makes an error in a tax bill, the taxpayer has to go through elaborate procedures to rectify the errors.

When it was discovered that farmers may not have to pay multipliers imposed on the assessments of their barns and outbuildings, the county apologized, cut through all the red tape and will send farmers corrected second installment tax bills automatically, without the farmers having to file certificates of error or leaving their homes.

"I have had 80-year-old women who have had to take a taxicab to my office due to an error made by the county or the township, pay the full amount of their tax bill under protest (no installments can be accepted under this procedure), go to the county clerk's office, write a $10 check for a filing fee for their objection to their taxes and then talk to an assistant state's attorney and possibly go to a hearing before a judge to rectify the error."

"It may take several trips to Edwardsville and then they have to wait 60 to 90 days for a refund," the assessor related.

Meanwhile, farmers, who are having farmland worth $2,000 assessed at $250, for example, are not subject to a multiplier on that farmland or outbuildings and do not have to do anything to have an error made by the county corrected, Cruse contended.

"Urban residents pay more in taxes on a small vacant lot than farmers pay on acres and acres," he contended.

"The thing that really burns me is that, through this thing with the farmers, the county has shown that it can set up a simple, easy solution for correcting an error. But they won't use it for urban residents, only the farmers."

"There are no travel expenses, no $10 check, no repeated trips to Edwardsville, no hearings, nothing. Farmers just sit at home and are sent a corrected tax bill. We sit here with a 21 percent multiplier in Granite City and it applies to everything. It's just not fair," Cruse added.

Miss Evelyn Bowles, county clerk, told the county board last week that her office could easily identify the farm properties which had been overcharged and the data processing department could print corrected bills for those affected.

City fund growth, economies sought

By BILL WINTER
of the Press-Record

Increased revenue, sick leave reform, productivity increases, easing of restrictive work rules, faster county property tax collection and increased computerization were mentioned last week as goals of the city government of Granite City. The occasion was the September prayer breakfast.

A gathering of 50 at Charlie's Restaurant heard talks by Mayor Paul Schuler, City Clerk Robert Stevens and Administrative Aide David Nolan, who Schuler said has been serving as acting city controller.

Host was the Granite City Rotary Club, headed by Robert Maxwell.

Drew Karandjoff, who presided, noted that the monthly prayer breakfast series was initiated by Carl Mathias with the leadership of Richard West, then the Rotary president, in 1972. The series was described as action-oriented, with emphasis on considering and resolving community issues.

Plans were made by the group last week to encourage Madison County officials to utilize new state laws permitting more rapid assessment reviews and quicker tax bill preparation.

A discussion brought out that late tax collections force taxing bodies to borrow funds, and also deprive the agencies of some of their opportunity to invest idle tax receipts at interest.

The mayor reported that an added one percent city sales tax was placed on first reading last week and will be up for adoption by the City Council tomorrow night.

He said the municipality had a $400,000 deficit at the end of the fiscal year on April 30, and expects a deficit of nearly that amount ($300,000) next April despite a ten percent reduction in employees and deferral of about $500,000 in capital expenditures, including purchase of new police patrol cars.

The city owes about $1,200,000 in tax warrants and may derive at least $1,500,000 from the new sales tax, Mayor Schuler estimated.

He said the $14 million city budget includes overpass construction funds. Nolan said salaries total $4,125,000 and the figure rises to $5,300,000 with inclusion of retirement contributions, group insurance and fireman and police pensions.

The $5.3 million is about 73 percent of the $7.2 million general fund; Nolan added; $1.2 million borrowing increases overall general fund costs to $6,465,000.

The mayor and city clerk outlined expanded training and use of the city's computer equipment, and answered questions from the breakfast group.

Stevens said a new computer payroll program is working smoothly and incorporates up to 20 types of pay deductions for the convenience of city employees.

Schuler pointed out that the Operating Engineers have cooperated in ending some of the manning

Poelker interim Bi-State executive

By BILL WINTER
of the Press-Record

Resignations were accepted Sunday from the two top administrators of the Bi-State Development Agency, whose interim executive director will be John Poelker, St. Louis' mayor in the mid-1970s.

With both Executive Director Charles G. Houghton III and General Manager William J. Wilson departing, Poelker will serve for several months while the agency considers whether to hire a management firm to run its business.

The unusual Sunday session of Bi-State commissioners, including Carl E.

Mathias of Granite City, followed a procedural crisis in which St. Louis and St. Louis County threatened to bankrupt the agency and its metropolitan area bus operations.

Illinoisans make up half of the ten-member Bi-State board. St. Louis Mayor Vincent Schoenheit's effort to create a new bus district with less Illinois control was abandoned Thursday night.

Schoenheit at that point still hoped to put Wilson in charge, and wanted Houghton and 74 others fired.

But on Friday Schoenheit abandoned Wilson, Houghton and Wilson agreed to resign after learning Poelker was willing to serve in Houghton's job; the Wilson position was not filled.

With the compromise reached during the weekend, half-cent sales taxes blocked by St. Louis and St. Louis County since July 1—are expected to start flowing again to Bi-State. The agency was within about two weeks of running out of money.

Wilson said, "My primary concern was to see that the transit system survives."

Houghton urged the board to "get a blood oath from (St. Louis County Executive) Gene McNary that he won't divert funds from the transportation sales tax, and a blood oath from Schoenheit that he will not try to influence the hiring process."

"If they can get that, I'll go out feeling I've done a good job, that I've protected the agency. That will mean my two years and two months here have been a success."

"You've got two different political forces joining together for two different reasons. One political force wants to dictate who is hired and fired at Bi-State. The other does not want all the half-cent transportation sales taxes generated in the county to go to public transit; (McNary) wants to divert

Man slain, 2 hurt in violence

One man died and two were wounded in two shootings, and a stabbing in Granite City and West Madison between Thursday night and early Saturday morning.

Dead is Arnold Turner, 21, of Kirkwood, Mo., who was shot in the head inside the El Capalano Lounge, 800 Jackson St., Madison, approximately 10 p.m. Thursday. A suspect has been charged with murder.

Injured in a separate shooting about 10:25 a.m. Friday was Richard Davidson, 32, of 2639 Lincoln Ave., who suffered two bullet wounds to his left side during a disturbance in his home. Police say they have questioned a suspect but do not plan to file charges until they investigate further whether the shooting may have been in self-defense.

Davidson was listed in stable condition in the intensive care unit of St. Elizabeth Medical Center following surgery.

Also in St. Elizabeth Medical Center is Larry Patterson, 22, of 2127 Lee Ave., who was stabbed after a party near his home about 1:15 a.m. Saturday. Police say a 16-year-old Missouri youth is sought for questioning in connection with the case. Patterson suffered a three-inch deep slash wound to his chest.

In connection with the West Madison fatal shooting, Calvin "Cookie" Branch, 24, was arrested at his home 136 Garasche Homes, Madison, by Madison police at 1:30 a.m. Friday and charged with murder. Bond was set Friday afternoon at $300,000 and Branch is being held in the Madison county jail.

Branch allegedly fatally shot Turner inside the tavern at approximately 10 p.m. Thursday. Turner was shot in the left side of the head with a large caliber weapon and to be a 38-caliber pistol. The bullet is being checked. The murder weapon has not been located.

The victim was found lying on his left side near the pinball machine with no signs of life. Dick Mizell, deputy coroner for Madison County, and the Madison Fire Department Ambulance Service were called.

Turner was then taken to the emergency room of St. Elizabeth Medical Center, where he was pronounced dead on arrival by Dr. Stephen Lillard, the emergency room physician.

Several patrons of the El Capalano Lounge were questioned, but the motive for the shooting has not been determined.

The Granite City shooting case occurred when Davidson returned home and allegedly kicked an inside door to a bedroom and a person in the house got a .22-caliber pistol from the closet and shot him two times as he tried to climb through the bottom portion of the door, which had been kicked in.

A Granite City ambulance was called and took him to the medical center. A friend gave Granite City police a .22-caliber gun he said was given to him by the person who allegedly shot Davidson. The suspect was questioned, but has been released, pending further investigation. Officers said Davidson refused to discuss the circumstances surrounding the shooting.

Police were notified of the stabbing case at 1:15 a.m. Saturday when an ambulance was called to Patterson's home. He had blood on his chest.

Patterson said he had been at a party at a home across the street from his home and there was a knock on the door. Two youths entered, exchanged words with Patterson and the three left.

Moments later, a friend found Patterson bleeding and helped him home. Patterson allegedly was uncooperative with police at the medical center and was admitted.

85-acre development proposed; includes commercial-industrial

By GARY SCHNEIDER
of the Press-Record

"One big store to serve as an anchor. That's all I need to get it going, and there are about five big stores showing an interest," Stan Lucas, president of SEMCO Inc., land developer, commented Thursday as he displayed the preliminary plat for a proposed 85-acre development he plans to build on an extension of St. Clair Avenue between Maryville Road and Mockingbird Lane.

"Just the anchor, and the cooperation of local officials," Lucas added. The cooperation of local officials is not assured, however, as Alderman Sam Whitmer of the Second Ward indicated at last week's city council meeting.

"I ask that every citizen get a copy of the Lucas proposal. This is too big," Whitmer gulped.

However, the all-terrain were cooperative Aug. 4 when Lucas first announced plans for the major commercial and multi-family residential development and asked the council to issue up to $8 million in industrial revenue bonds for the project. Lucas is in the process of preparing those bonds, with the endorsement of the city council.

Still needed from the city council are agreements to annex the property to the city and to approve the zoning required.

Lucas' preliminary plat shows an 85-acre development which would include space for commercial buildings, office condominiums and apartments along a planned extension of St. Clair Avenue to the east of Maryville Road.

Actually, two entrances are planned, one from St. Clair Avenue and the other across from Saratoga Avenue. Two 60-foot-wide streets are planned along the north and south sides of the proposed 22-acre Town & Country Plaza Shopping Center. The two streets would join east of Mockingbird Lane and become one street at the intersection.

Eleven acres of commercial area are planned on the north end of the plat, backing up to the Seventh Addition to the Town and Country East Subdivision. In the northeast corner would be a storm water holding basin. Along the east side 10 and 14 acres of planned multi-family area, separated by the street to Mockingbird Lane.

Along the south edge of the development, from the multi-family area west, are five acres and three acres of space for office condominiums, separated by Boston Place, four acres for commercial use just south of the extension of Saratoga Ave., and two acres north of the Saratoga extension, bordering Maryville Road, for which no specific use has been decided, Lucas said.

Behind Glenview Chapel and Suburban Baptist Church on Maryville Road, Lucas plans a 60-foot wide north-south street connecting the St. Clair Avenue extension with the Saratoga Avenue extension. The proposed shopping center will border the east side of the street.

The preliminary plat was presented to the council with a letter from Lucas asking the council to refer it to the city's Plan Commission for study and a recommendation. He indicated that businesses are interested in immediate development in the area and urged that action be taken as soon as possible to approve the planned unit development.

Lucas' first announced plans for the development Aug. 4 when he asked the

Open house, public tours to mark Port observance

In observance of National Port Week, Oct. 5-10, the board of directors of the Tri-City Regional Port District has invited residents of the Quad-Cities as well as the general public to attend special events and an open house at Tri-City Port, 2801 Rock Road, in Granite City.

On Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 6-7, over 1,000 Tri-City area high school seniors will be given special tours of the Port and Lock 27. Thursday, Oct. 8, has been designated Senior Citizen's Day and special arrangements have been made for approximately 300 Tri-City area senior citizens to be picked up by bus at various centers and given tours of the Port and Lock 27.

An open house for the general public will be held on Friday, Oct. 9 from noon to 6 p.m. and Saturday, Oct. 10, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The open house will feature free continuous bus tours of the Port—Illinois' largest operating full-service inland port as well as Lock 27, the nation's busiest lock. Tours of Lock 27 will be conducted by the U.S. Corps of Engineers. In addition there will be exhibits and displays suitable for all ages.

Parking is free for the event. Following signs along U.S. Route 50 will direct traffic to the Tri-City Port entrance on Rock Road where parking is free and the bus tours will originate.

TIME and the R SYMBOL

In the days before type and the craft of printing, all recorded works were transcribed by hand. It was a laborious task. To speed it, short cuts or symbols were developed to cut down repetitious words. Thus the R with a slash across the tail is from the Latin word Responso meaning "to receive" as in instructions from a Physician to a Pharmacist.

Brighter prospects for foster children in new legislation

Governor James R. Thompson has signed legislation which he said "brightens prospects of a permanent home for every child who comes under state guardianship." Thompson signed the bills at a luncheon meeting of news media executives at the Palmer House at Chicago.

The governor also invited a multi-media public service advertising campaign to recruit adoptive families for "special needs" children. He said this includes minority children, white children over age 10 and youngsters who have physical or mental handicaps.

Joining Thompson at the bill signing ceremonies and a press conference preceding the luncheon were Senate President Philip Rogers, Peters, Assistant House Majority Leader, Jane Barnes, Chairwoman of the House Health and Family Services Committee, and other legislators who guided the bills through the General Assembly.

Keynote of the series of bills was House Bill 985, sponsored by Peters of Chicago, Rock of Oak Park and Senator Kenneth Buzbee of Carbondale.

The bills make major changes in Illinois Adoption laws to remove legal and bureaucratic barriers to freeing more foster children for adoption. Highlights include:

Reduction in the standard of proof for a court finding of parental unfitness (from a case law standard of "clear and convincing" to a statutory "preponderance of the evidence").

Establishment of failure of a parent to visit or communicate with a child for one year as grounds for a finding of unfitness.

Shift of primary responsibility for visiting and maintaining contact with the child from the social service agency to the parent.

Elimination of the requirement that an adoptive family be identified prior to legal termination of rights of an unfit parent.

Establishment of preference as adoptive applicants for foster parents who have cared for a child continuously for 12 months.

The governor also signed House Bill 986, sponsored by Representative Alfred Roman, Chicago and Senators Roger Keats, Kenilworth and Steven Nash, Chicago.

It amends the Juvenile Court Act to require the court to order parents or guardians to pay for the care of their children if placed with a legal custodian, according to a fee schedule established by law.

The legislation will help the state recover some costs of foster care by making non-payment by parents a violation of the court order.

The governor also praised Mrs. Barnes of Oak Lawn and Nash for their sponsorship of House Bill 986, which Thompson said "provides a foundation in Illinois for a system of permanency planning for children."

The governor approved the bill last week and sent it back to the General Assembly for concurrence.

The bill requires DCFS to establish a case tracking system to monitor and evaluate services for children in foster care and their families.

It requires development of a written case plan for each child placed outside his or her own home and requires a six month review and update of the plan. The review could be conducted by the department or an outside review panel.

The bill also makes the state's definition of "child welfare services" consistent with the federal Adoption Assistance and Child Welfare Act of 1980, which accentuates permanency for children.

Support, opposition on rail yard revision

Both support for and opposition to extensive rail yard relocation work were voiced at public hearings last week in East St. Louis.

Final decisions are still pending on the $600 million, multi-year program, which is intended to speed the transfer of freight through this metropolitan area.

The City of Granite City sees the Metro Area Rail Gateway Enterprise (MARGE) as increasing railroad efficiency, improving public safety through elimination of some grade crossings, and stimulating regional industrial growth.

Granite City proposes further study of specific rail auto crossings and related traffic patterns, and urges attention to the impact of growing railroad traffic associated with the Tri-City Regional Port.

Granite City Army Installation and regional port area, sites are among those being studied for utilization as "piggyback" cargo transfer locations.

Another possible site is near Route 303 and Interstate 55-70 south of Madison.

Venice, which owns the McKinley Bridge, says proposed MARGE rail traffic volume would on many occasions limit bridge auto traffic to one lane in each direction, reducing the toll revenue needed to meet operating and maintenance costs and bond debt.

With fewer lanes open to autos and trucks, congestion could increase and it would be more difficult to operate fire and other emergency vehicles, it is being pointed out.

Guilty but ill verdict allowed

Governor James R. Thompson signed landmark legislation Thursday creating a "guilty but mentally ill" verdict in Illinois criminal cases.

"This law will ensure that those people who have mental problems and are responsible for crimes are punished as well as treated," the governor said.

"It responds to a problem in our society, that of violence by those with mental ailments who have slipped through loopholes in our criminal justice system."

The U.S. Attorney General's Task Force on Violent Crime, of which I was co-chairman, felt it was a serious enough problem that it recommended in its final report that this legislation, be passed on the federal level.

Illinois Senate Bill 867, which was introduced on behalf of the governor, allows the court, if the evidence permits, to instruct the jury on the alternative verdict of guilty but mentally ill when an insanity defense is raised.

When a person is not legally insane, he may be found guilty but mentally ill, if at the time of the offense he suffered from a disorder of thought or mood that impaired his judgment, but not to the extent that he was unable to appreciate the wrongfulness of the behavior or unable to conform to the requirements of the requirements of law.

The Department of Corrections must provide special psychiatric counseling or other treatment for the defendant if found guilty but mentally ill.

The department also may transfer the defendant to the Department of Mental Health and Developmental Disabilities.

Once the defendant no longer needs treatment by the Mental Health Department, he must return to the custody of the Corrections Department to finish the prison sentence.

If the defendant is sentenced to other than a prison term, he must submit to a course of treatment set by the court.

The bill takes effect immediately.

GCHS South band holds preview

Granite City High School South Marching Band presented its annual "Parent's Night Preview" on the football field of the game and half-time shows last week. They will perform at South's home football games this season.

The presentation also included performances by the Dixie Dolls, Pom-Pom Squad and the Warrior Flag Squad. The performance was attended by a large number of parents and family members.

Harry Chronister said grace before a pot luck supper served by the South Band Parents Association, held in the cafeteria immediately following the performance.

Approximately 250 family members of the marching units enjoyed the meal.

Owen Ross, president of the South Band Parents Assoc., held a brief business meeting following the dinner. Ross outlined several projects the band parents sponsor for the band throughout the year.

He announced the band is awaiting shipment of the new marching uniforms the Band Parents Assoc. have purchased and plans to have the new uniforms displayed during the evening.

Band Parent board members introduced were: Bertha Millianis, vice president; Janis Smith, treasurer; Dorothy Kohl, secretary; Pat Ellis, historian; Lou Passig, past president; and George Hlava, member at large.

Officers of a newly formed parents group sponsoring the Dixie Dolls were introduced. They are President Sharon Aleksandrian, Vice President Marge Pennell, Secretary Janet Smith, Treasurer Charles Shanks, and Ways and Means Chairman Marilyn Bodman.

Joseph Owens, band director, reported on the progress of the band and outlined goals and plans for the coming year.

The next Band Parent meeting will be held Tuesday, Oct. 13 in the band room at South at 7:30 p.m.

How to avoid bias on national origin?

Governor James R. Thompson has recommended changing a bill that adds "national origin" as a state affirmative action category, proposing instead that the Department of Human Rights adopt rules that will implement the bill's intent.

Thompson proposed changes in House Bill 76 to carry out the intended purpose of the legislation—to place groups, traditionally discriminated against on the basis of nationality, on equal footing with other groups.

He changed the bill's language to require that the department announce rules that set criteria for qualifying as a national origin group falling under the scope of the legislation.

As soon as possible after that, he said, the agency will conduct hearings and issue regulations which have been discriminated against, in order to require statistical reporting for "those" nationalities and those nationalities only under the measure.

"This action eliminates needless competition with predominant groups. It will resolve the question of mixed origin and will not interfere with existing affirmative action programs, which all of us concede are clearly needed," Thompson said.

The bill was returned to the legislature for consideration of the proposed changes.

As approved by the legislature, it would amend the state's Human Rights Act by adding "national origin" to the categories into which state employees must be classified for affirmative action purposes.

Under current provisions of the Human Rights Act, persons of all national origins are already protected specifically against discrimination in employment," the governor said in his message to lawmakers.

"This bill would not expand the protection granted to any individual or group against discrimination in employment."

As currently written, he said, the measure is "overly broad" and virtually impossible to implement.

"Since this bill includes all national origin groups, it is conceivably applicable to everyone in Illinois except American Indians. No definitions are included to clarify what constitutes an origin group. No restrictions are required to demonstrate that prejudicial treatment and discrimination have occurred."

"If specific ethnic minorities confront discrimination, this will not advance the interest, since it fails to focus on any one group as distinct from others who are more fortunate."

AUTO HITS POST

Kenneth W. Nolen, 25, of 2709 Pershing Blvd., was charged with careless driving after his auto entered the parking lot of Burger King, Nameoki Road and Clark Avenue at 5:50 a.m. Sunday and drove into a post at the southeast corner of the restaurant building. Nolen said he may have fallen asleep, police said. He suffered a visible injury to his forehead, but declined immediate medical treatment.

Former chief now dispatcher at Madison

Former Madison Police Chief Emmett "Lumpy" Pazia, 75, of 1648 Fifth St., Madison, returned to the Madison police department last week as a dispatcher for the 11 p.m. until 7 a.m. shift.

Madison Mayor Mike Segny said that Pazia is working on a temporary basis only due to a shortage of police dispatchers.

Madison has had a problem keeping police dispatchers, mainly due to school schedules and minimum wage payment.

A police spokesman said the city has tried to help local youth who were qualified and going to college, by hiring them.

Another problem causing the "dispatcher" shortage, as in other cities, is the cutback in federal money sponsored programs such as CETA, which paid more than minimum wage.

Pazia served for several years as a Madison police officer and as chief of police, retiring from that position in January 1970.

Pazia worked at the Madison High School as a security officer from January 1970 until January 1973.

He left the sheriff's department in March 1979, when the county board did away with the gas station and garage that serviced deputies cars.

He worked for the Madison County Circuit Clerk's office as a deputy clerk, from Jan. 15, 1980 until June 1, 1981.

Deadline for auto licenses is Sept. 30

Passenger car owners with license plate registrations expiring in September have until midnight Wednesday, Sept. 30, to display brown 1982 stickers in the upper right corners of their rear plates.

Secretary of State Jim Edgar said approximately 672,000 renewal applications have been mailed to registered owners who currently display green 1981 stickers expiring in September.

Applications made by mail should be in the Secretary's office no later than Tuesday, Sept. 15, to guarantee delivery by the Sept. 30 deadline.

Stickers also may be purchased over the counter at the Secretary of State's Springfield and Chicago facilities or many financial institutions participating in the license renewal program.

Effective Thursday, Oct. 1, anyone driving a car with an expired green, September 1981, sticker may be ticketed and fined for improper registration.

If you have any questions about the Secretary of State's office, use the Secretary's toll-free telephone number (800-252-8980).

Repayment of $2,174 ordered

Jerry Baugus, 46, of 23 Lakeview Drive, Pontoon Beach, has been sentenced by Circuit Judge A. A. Matosian to make restitution of $2,174 and to serve two years of probation.

Felony theft occurred between April 1979 and March 1980, the Illinois Bureau of Investigation and Illinois Division of Criminal Investigation alleged in June 1981.

Eight Madison County residents and five St. Clair County residents were charged in unrelated cases with welfare fraud.

Baugus allegedly received the $2,174 in state public aid funds while actually working for wages at a Mitchell motel.

MADISON BURGLARY

The home of Allen Holford, 2047 Rhodes St., Madison, was burglarized between 6 and 11:30 p.m. Saturday and a .38-caliber revolver was stolen. A hole was knocked through a bedroom ceiling to gain entry. Holford also showed officers where a large money wrench had been used to damage large sections of concrete in the basement wall.

State can intervene in school planning

Gov. James R. Thompson last week approved House Bill 144, which allows the State Board of Education to investigate the financial status of school districts certified to be in financial difficulty.

Under the measure, the State Board could certify that a district is in financial trouble when one or more of eight conditions are present. If it certifies a school district is in financial difficulty, the State Board is empowered to require the district to submit a financial plan in accordance with

Coolidge Jr. High cheerleaders named

The Coolidge Junior High School eighth grade cheerleading team was selected last week, according to an announcement by Miss Dorothy Hinson, advisor for the group.

Those to serve for the forthcoming school year include: Lancy Castillo, Shelly Chronister, Kathy Cook, Kalani Cornelison, Janice Dodd, Patty Donjain, Kelly Evans, Dawn Finn, Serena Futrell, Lisa Green, Christy Habbert, Alicia Hughes and Theresa Johnson.

Also Robin Keel, Cindy Kingston, Tracey Meyenburg, Carrie Naeve, Michelle Neal, Susan Phelps, Kirsten Weathersford, Kelly Williams, Dawn Wilson, Denise Worthen, Carla Yager, and Angela Zentgraf.

The team is divided into three squads of eight or nine girls and they compete for the football, basketball and wrestling activities, Miss Hinson explained.

BAC program for older persons grows into $900,000 business

By KARL L. MONROE
Belleville Area College Program and Services for Older Persons has grown into a $900,000 business, financed five ways.
The bulk of the money comes from the federal government $558,387 according to the unaudited figures for the period July 1, 1980 to June 30, 1981. Local contributions from various sources totaled $142,817. The state of Illinois contributed $9,865 and private sources supplied $40,113.
Belleville Area College furnished $115,067.
From the education fund, BAC paid $19,518 to the aging program, 100 percent of the salary of Director of Programs and Services for Older Persons Eugene Verdu $23,999, 75 percent of the salary of Dean of Programs and Services for Older Persons Dr. Warren Nieberg $27,787, employee benefits $944.16 and bookkeeping salaries $4,382.
The BAC building fund paid $16,025 rent expense, $15,460 custodial salary, $759 custodial benefits, and $6,190 utilities and insurance.
The report was prepared by Vice President Administrative Services Jim Hines.
The program operated seven activities.
Their funding, aside from the BAC contributions, was as follows:
RSVP, which recruits older people to volunteer, operates from two offices, in Belleville, the other in Granite City. Its source of funds other than BAC assistance, was $9,865 state, $78,320 federal, and $17,976 private.
PSOP, the "umbrella" administrative unit, received $3,311 private funding in addition to the $115,067 from BAC.
Multi-purpose, consisting of assistance with homestead and circuit breaker applications and other such services, received $4,370 local funding and $8,981 private funding.
Senior nutrition, operating at nine locations, Lebanon, O'Fallon, Caseyville, Township, Dupu, Cahokia, New Athens, and three sites in Belleville, received $106,540 federal funding and $5,611 private funding.
DARTS, the senior transportation program operating in the St. Clair County townships of Belleville, Stokoe and St. Clair, was funded $68,795 by local funding and $6,000 by private funding.
Senior Aides is a very large PSOP program, dollar-wise. It was funded $25,651 by local funding, $232,500 federal funds.
Outreach, finding isolated, mainly homebound elders to acquaint them with services available, received $5,133 private funds.
The entire funding, including the $115,067 provided by BAC, totaled $900,700.
The figures do not jibe with another set prepared by Nieberg, the discrepancy undoubtedly arising from the fact that fiscal years of the seven programs do not coincide.
His figures showed federal dollars expended $447,795, local funds $839,360, private funds $109,151, state funds $3,700 and BAC funds $45,572, a total of $1,445,578.
Verdu said that state authorities have reserved Madison County nutrition services to the Madison County senior Services based in Alton. Madison County Senior Services operates 18 nutrition centers, including the Troy Senior Center, Collinsville Brainer Homes, and Maryville administration building.

A broadly based campaign is going on to use community development funds to build a Collinsville Senior Center. Intrigued by the question of who would administer it, an inquiry why BAC, with its heavily-funded older persons programs, did not extend them to the same portion of the Area College district; and learned the state "franchise" in the nutrition area seems to explain it.
The American Association of Retired Persons organizes its own activities.
But there is no broad-scale program of services for older persons in some areas comparable to the programs provided in Belleville and environs by Belleville Area College taxes.
Asked how BAC could have

Driver training problem

A hitch has developed in high school driver training plans for 1981-82, a Granite City School Board discussion showed last week.
The successful finding of a specially equipped, dual-control autos indicates he is unable to fulfill the contract.
Other firms are unwilling to bid unless specifications are altered to include sale or lease of cars, Ronald Dillard of the driver training facility said.
Board members voiced displeasure over the prospect of having to end the existing contract, and will explore a variety of options at their Oct. 6 meeting.
The board extended its consulting agreement with Providence Management and Marketing Services. The firm will continue to evaluate school cafeteria operations in the hope of reducing the lunch program's financial deficit.
Edward Mercer was hired as Granite City High School North campus monitor.
The board dismissed a tenured teacher for failure to report to work, and approved retirement requests from the program's financial deficit.
Allen of GCHS North and Ella Mae Cavanaugh of GCHS South, Cheryl Reed, former South home economics teacher, is resigning.
Patricia Prosser was hired as lower intermediate teacher at Maryville School. She previously had been honorably dismissed due to a staff reduction.

Budget for multipurpose gym equipment

About $1 million for site improvements and equipment for the new multipurpose gymnasium building at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville heads the capital budget priority listing for the SIU system for the 1983 fiscal year, July 1982-June 1983, newly approved by SIU trustees.
The priority listing will be submitted to the Illinois Board of Higher Education (IBHE) as part of the Resource Allocation and Management Program (RAMPM), a budgeting plan instituted by the IBHE as the first in a series of steps required to develop actual operating and capital fund requests.
The second priority on the list is Phase II of the project to replace underground electrical cables at SIU Carbondale, at a cost of $275,000, and the third priority is $322,000 in planning funds for a permanent dental education facility at the university's School of Dental Medicine in Alton.
The priority listing includes 16 projects for SIUC at a total cost of $8.8 million and nine projects for SIUE at a cost of $4.7 million, for a system total of $3.6 million.
In addition, 11 energy conservation projects, six for SIUC and five for SIUE, are listed at a total estimated cost of $2 million.
Also shown are five food production projects for SIUC at a total cost of $2.7 million.
The separate priority lists for energy conservation and food production were prepared at the request of the IBHE.
The SIU system request, totals $18,243,700, with all three lists included, totals $18,243,700, the highest priority items, either SIU capital projects, listed excluding food production and energy conservation, and their system's priority rankings are:
Wagner roof repair, $157,700, No. 6; Wagner mechanical work, $340,560, No. 8; East St. Louis Center, remodel sixth floor, $942,100, No. 11; School of Dental Medicine remodeling, $155,200, No. 13.
Wagner Building remodeling, $238,200, No. 15; relocated service drives in vicinity of the multipurpose building, $893,600, No. 18; add replace roofs, Renovation and Supporting Services buildings, $411,000, No. 23.
According to the system state, several priority considerations were recognized in merging the requests of both universities into a single priority listing, including projects in a state of partial completion and requiring further funding; projects responding to accreditation needs; to violation of codes and to needs for public health and safety.
Also, projects of an emergency nature; work providing for accessibility for the handicapped; and rehabilitation, remodeling, and realignment of existing facilities, with special consideration given when preservation of the facility was a factor.

Gets post in veteran affairs department

Governor James R. Thompson has appointed Thomas R. Jones as assistant director of the Department of Veterans Affairs.
"The needs and concerns of our veterans must be responded to in today's society," Thompson said. "Tom Jones has the ability and the background to meet the increasing rehabilitative and health care needs of Illinois veterans."
Jones, 36, served in the United States Navy from 1964 to 1971 and was awarded the Purple Heart for wounds suffered in Vietnam as a Senior Corporal. He also received the Presidential Unit Citation award, the Good Conduct Medal and the Vietnam Combat Ribbon.
Jones is currently International Affairs Officer in the Department of Public Health, a post he has held since January, 1980. Before that Jones worked as Project Director for the St. Francis Hospital/Medical Center in Peoria. He also has been Vice President for marketing and enrollment for the Master Health Care Plan in Peoria, and was Regional Emergency Medical Services Supervisor for the Department of Public Health.
Jones is married and has two children. He resides in Springfield. His salary will be $37,000 and his appointment requires Senate confirmation.

Schoemehl and McNary attended Sunday's meeting and said the actions taken will help stabilize the agency.

Also present was a representative of Board Chairman Jerry Costello, who said Poelker's appointment "will restore faith in Bi-State." St. Clair force, a Houghton-Wilson feud had led to administrative duplication, critics of the agency, including Congressman William Clay, said.

He said Poelker has been told to "act judiciously but quickly" to determine what cutbacks should be made to reduce duplication in the Bi-State work force. A Houghton-Wilson feud had led to administrative duplication, critics of the agency, including Congressman William Clay, said.

"They made it so easy," Cruse said.

He also contends that Madison County State's Attorney Don Weber made an error in judgment when he agreed that assessments should not be applied to farm buildings, but an assistant state attorney felt that a 1977 law prohibiting counties from adding multiple taxes to farm land also applied to outbuildings.

Weber was asked at public meetings on taxation to seek an attorney general's opinion on the issue and told those present that he would not, since it would be just another attorney's opinion.

Cruse contends that Weber should have sought an attorney general's opinion. "It is just a matter of principle. Fairness in taxes should be uniform. I don't think it is proper to operate under two sets of rules," he said.

Commenting on the complicated procedure urban taxpayers have to go through to correct an error on their tax bills, other than leaving the Senate Bill 1790 or Homestead exemptions off the bill, Cruse said, "I don't think these people should be penalized for errors we have made."

think this is really unfair.

"I made an error or the county made an error, we should correct it and the taxpayers should not have to pay a fee, go to Edwardsville several times, pay all of their taxes at once under protest (instead of two installments) and go through all of this."

Errors in the Senate Bill 1790 or Homestead exemptions can be corrected in the city hall of Granite City, which simplifies that somewhat, but the taxpayer still must pay a $10 filing fee and must pay all of his taxes at once, rather than in two installments. "How many people have enough money to pay all their taxes at once? I don't," Cruse stated.

"The $10 filing fee is refunded if the taxpayer is found to be correct in his objection to the tax bill, but it is usually two to three months before the taxpayer gets his money back, Cruse added.

Another interesting question posed by Cruse is what the county will do about farm outbuildings in Nameoki Township, which had a number of multiple tax bills. When that was multiplied to the assessments of farm buildings, it reduced the assessments 91 percent and the taxes were reduced the same percentage when applied against the lower assessment.

Cruse said that Weber should have sought an attorney general's opinion. "It is just a matter of principle. Fairness in taxes should be uniform. I don't think it is proper to operate under two sets of rules," he said.

council to begin arranging an industrial bond issue of up to $8 million to help financing the development. Those papers have been prepared by Lucas, with consultation by the city's engineers and attorneys, but Lucas says he will not request that the bonds be issued until he is ready to begin construction.

City Engineer Monroe Brewer has predicted that if the city secures the $8 million for Lucas, other firms will submit requests for similar revenue bonds to construct their stores and buildings. Since there is no cost or obligation to the city from the bonds, cooperation by the council with the project may lead to a major development with increased taxes for the area, it was indicated.

The Plan Commission will study the preliminary plat for the planned unit development at a public hearing to be scheduled, probably in October. Final approval could not be given as a planned unit development (PUD).

unless the city, in the interim, passes a proposed new city zoning ordinance, which contains the PUD category.

The current zoning ordinance does not allow PUDs, which are approved as single zoning requests, waiving setback requirements and other requirements to give developers freedom to mix residential, multi-family, commercial and even industrial development in new and attractive ways without having to seek numerous zoning variances, according to planners.

The majority of the development planned by Lucas would fall in the new business and apartment buildings which may locate there. Lucas has already written letters and a sample resolution of intent for the Madison County Special Sewer Committee to study.

He seeks annexation of the property into the sewer district and a promise that sewer service will be provided to any structures which locate there.

The sewer committee is expected to study Lucas' proposals at the regular October meeting.

"It think it is going to go and is going to be big," Lucas said. "I have a large 'candy store' for groceries, a department store or other large store, makes a commitment to build there or to lease a store as Lucas is willing to build."

"If there is no other, there will be no development. I will just stop it there, but I don't think that is going to happen. I have people coming in here today (Thursday) to look over the property for a major store and I am in touch with several others who are interested," Lucas revealed.

"I thought the day had passed when Missouri public officials tried to treat Metro East like a poor relative."

"I have honestly addressed the problem of getting the people of Illinois to pay a fair, reasonable share of public transportation costs," Houghton and many of his staff members worked hard on both sides of the river to further that goal.

Chairman Nations warned Sunday that "Bi-State's worries are not over." Nations, Mathias and Robert Schrimpf of Illinois and Guy Jaffe, Michael Aubuchon and Dempster Holland of Missouri approved the selection of Poelker. The other four commissioners were absent.

Poelker said he will begin making inquiries of firms experienced in transit management but that "we have some talented people here and don't want them to feel they're going to be swept out."

Schoemehl said he will go along with whatever management suggestions Poelker recommends.

McNary gave no promises on restoring sales taxes but commented, "The state has got to be cut down to one we can afford. Bus service will have to be improved, and there will have to be adjustments at the transportation, Mayor Schoemehl, and paring it down to one should help."

"If they are going to remove the multiplier for farm outbuildings in the county, they should reduce the negative multiplier for Nameoki Township and farmers should have to pay more. What's fair is fair," the assessor contended.

"If you are going to play with these multipliers, then what should be used in Nameoki, too," he added. Wilbert Egelke, livestock and farmer in Nameoki Township, told the Press-Record Friday that farmers he has contacted, including owners of some of the farm buildings and dairy farms in the Quad City area, are not too concerned about the multiplier issue. One farmer, who owns numerous farm buildings, told Egelke he did not believe the change would affect his tax bill by 10.

No matter how much money is involved, Cruse stated, the county has set a good example with the farmers of how it can easily correct errors in the computing a tax bill. Farmers who have already paid their taxes will have the excess refunded to them, as seen as an easy method, he set up, he added.

"If the county can do it for the farmers, why can't it do the same for the urban residents? It seems like we are being treated differently in a city instead of on a farm," Cruse concluded.

Cruse said that Weber should have sought an attorney general's opinion. "It is just a matter of principle. Fairness in taxes should be uniform. I don't think it is proper to operate under two sets of rules," he said.

Commenting on the complicated procedure urban taxpayers have to go through to correct an error on their tax bills, other than leaving the Senate Bill 1790 or Homestead exemptions off the bill, Cruse said, "I don't think these people should be penalized for errors we have made."

The Plan Commission will study the preliminary plat for the planned unit development at a public hearing to be scheduled, probably in October. Final approval could not be given as a planned unit development (PUD).

unless the city, in the interim, passes a proposed new city zoning ordinance, which contains the PUD category.

The current zoning ordinance does not allow PUDs, which are approved as single zoning requests, waiving setback requirements and other requirements to give developers freedom to mix residential, multi-family, commercial and even industrial development in new and attractive ways without having to seek numerous zoning variances, according to planners.

The majority of the development planned by Lucas would fall in the new business and apartment buildings which may locate there. Lucas has already written letters and a sample resolution of intent for the Madison County Special Sewer Committee to study.

He seeks annexation of the property into the sewer district and a promise that sewer service will be provided to any structures which locate there.

The sewer committee is expected to study Lucas' proposals at the regular October meeting.

"It think it is going to go and is going to be big," Lucas said. "I have a large 'candy store' for groceries, a department store or other large store, makes a commitment to build there or to lease a store as Lucas is willing to build."

"If there is no other, there will be no development. I will just stop it there, but I don't think that is going to happen. I have people coming in here today (Thursday) to look over the property for a major store and I am in touch with several others who are interested," Lucas revealed.

work force totals 220.

Mayor Schuler said industries' expertise is welcomed and their advice has been utilized, but that the city now needs to be in city implementation of various recommendations.

It was estimated that the present

TERRY RAINEY*Graduates at Air Academy

Airman Terry L. Rainey, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Rainey, 705 29th St., graduated with honors from the U.S. Air Force Security Police Academy at Lackland AFB, Texas, last week.

While attending the Security Police Academy, Airman Rainey was selected to be the student leader for his flight. As student leader he was responsible for the safety, well being, and completion of training for all of the personnel in his flight.

This position is delegated to Airmen in the flight who reflect the greatest amount of leadership ability. Terry is presently assigned to the Strategic Air Command Security Police Force at Griffiss AFB, New York.

Completion of six weeks of basic military training and eight weeks of training at the USAF Security Police Academy earned Rainey credits towards an associates in applied science degree through the Community College of the Air Force. He is a 1978 graduate of Granite City South High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy G. Gibbons, 15 Fontainebleau, is a junior at Granite City High School North and attends Nameoki Methodist Church.

He has distinguished himself by bringing in new members in DeMolay having earned the Blue Honor Key for 10, the Founder's Membership Award for five and was the Master of the DeMolay chapter in the Illinois DeMolay in 1980. He attended Leadership camp at Potosi, Mo. in 1979.

Also elected were: Robert B. Hebblewhite Jr., senior counselor; David F. Medley, junior counselor; David D. Trebing, chaplain; and Antonio J. Narvaez, treasurer. The elected and appointed officers will be publicly installed at 7 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 10 at the Masonic Temple.

Activities reported at the business meeting chaired by P.M.C. Paul Clindard were: Highland Chapter's public installation on Sept. 17, where Neal Mize served as installing senior counselor and gave the "Ode to the Flag." Jimmy K. Stuart gave the "DeMolay Flower Talk." Also attending were: DeMolays, Ralph McKinney Jr. and Antonio Narvaez, advisors, Charlie Mize and Jimmy E. Stuart; mothers, Mrs. Barbara McKinney, Mrs. Charlotte Mize, Mrs. Mary Stuart, and Mrs. Georgia Burns.

Woman bound, gagged during home invasion

A 42-year-old Madison woman was terrorized in her home early Saturday by a man and two women who ransacked the house, stole a ring from her finger and beat her after possibly drugging her.

Elaine Parron, 42, of the 1700 block of Market St., said she had two men visiting and after one left she became ill and had to lie down.

The man who stayed in the house telephoned a woman he called Dorothy and gave her the address of the house.

The next thing Mrs. Parron recalled was waking to find two women over her bed, one holding her feet and the other holding her hands and pulling a $1,200 diamond ring off one of her fingers.

The victim also recalled a man's voice saying, "We should kill this." The robbers gagged her with a cloth and tied her hands behind her with a telephone cord and nylon stocking and then left the house, which had been ransacked.

She was able to get to her feet and walked to the neighboring home of Madison Police Detective Paul Bargiel, who untied her hands. He described her as hysterical.

Bargiel summoned additional policemen and they searched her house, finding no one inside. There was extensive ransacking inside her home and it has not been determined whether anything but the ring had been taken.

She crossed street twice, but each time, he crossed behind her, she related. Then he ran up to her again, but ran away when she screamed, police were told.

Moments later, he ran back up to her near the high school, grabbed her and tried to push her in the bushes, she alleged.

The victim said that when she threatened to call the police, he became abusive and threatened to "blow her head off," officers related. She said he pushed and dragged her toward the building and pushed her to the ground.

She struggled with him briefly on the ground before she was able to break free, she said. She then ran into Madison Avenue and waved May's car to a stop.

May turned his auto onto the high school lawn to intercept the man, who then started to run. May chased him on foot until the man fell next to 3005 Madison Ave., where May handcuffed him and searched him, but found no weapon. The officer asked a passing motorist to go to the police station and search a squad car, which the motorist did.

A full statement was taken from the victim and officers plan to ask the Madison County state's attorney for permission today to file felony charges against the prisoner.

Visitor alleges assault

Granite City police plan to seek approval to issue felony charges today against a 30-year-old St. Louis man who allegedly attacked a 22-year-old woman from Lexington, Ill., on the sidewalk along Madison Avenue near Granite City High School at 6:30 a.m. Sunday.

Granite City Police Patrolman Terry May was in uniform and driving his personal car past the high school enroute to work at 6:40 a.m. when the woman ran into the street and waved for him to stop.

May described her as appearing very frightened and she pointed to a black man nearby and alleged he had followed her, grabbed her several times and threatened to kill her. She said he kept reaching under his jacket, as though he had a weapon, but she never saw one.

She said that when she first saw the man, she was walking on the sidewalk in the 2800 block of Madison Avenue and the man allegedly was exposing himself to her. She said that when she tried to walk past

Lieut. Reno killed in odd accident

Lieut. Dave Reno, 53, of Dorsey, Ill., of the Madison County Sheriff's Department, died when he was run over by a friend driving a pickup truck that was trying to help Mr. Reno at 10 p.m. Thursday.

Reno, who owns about 10 acres of land at his home, had gone outside to ride his small trail bike.

After not hearing the bike for a while, one of his sons went out to see where his dad was.

Lieut. Reno had apparently fallen off the bike in an area of high weeds and told his son to go get help.

that he thought he may have broken his leg. The boy went back home and got a friend who could not see Mr. Reno in the high weeds, and accidentally ran over him.

Funeral arrangements are being handled by Gent Funeral Home, Alton.

ARREST ON WARRANT

Danny R. Poe, 22, of 2433 Logan Ave., was arrested in the 2500 block of East 25th Street at 9:10 p.m. Thursday on a warrant alleging failure to appear in court on a charge of criminal damage to property.

Jailed after scuffle with Venice officers

Darnell Gregory, 32, of 1227 Robin St., Venice, was being held in the Venice city jail this weekend on a total of three warrants and on a warrant alleging failure to appear in court on an earlier traffic charge.

Gregory was arrested at Weaver and Market streets in Venice at 10:55 p.m. Saturday after his auto went onto the sidewalk. Police alleged that he was staggering and refused to cooperate or to show his driver's license to officers. When told his car would be towed, since he did not appear in any condition to drive, he allegedly became disorderly, used loud and profane language toward officers and refused to be handcuffed. Force was required to handcuff him and during the scuffle, Patrolman John Kittle's eyeglasses were broken and he suffered cut knees and torn uniform trousers.

Patrolman Daniel McKinnon also alleged that he had been threatened by Gregory, who was lodged and held in lieu of bond totaling more than $500.

Petrillo fires back; says city council is uninformed

The cause of Granite City's financial problems today is not because the city treasurer is not doing his job, but because the city council ignored his advice a year ago to cut its budget or face financial crisis, City Treasurer Nick Petrillo told the Press-Record this morning.

Petrillo came under fire at the city council's last meeting for poor attendance, both at the city council meetings and in his office. He said some absenteeism is unavoidable, since he recently had a tumor removed and is undergoing chemotherapy treatment, after which rest is imperative.

However, he said, he has been devoting as much time as possible to the treasurer's duties and many times, when he is not in the office, he is still occupied with city business. "When people see me downtown, I am still working. I am going to the banks and taking care of the people and fire persons and other matters," Petrillo said.

"He said his office is running as smoothly as possible, considering that it is one secretary short. What is needed, instead of a full-time controller for the city, he contended, is one full-time secretary capable of operating the city's computer to provide day-by-day printouts of the city's cash flow. Then, if the city council would listen to Petrillo's advice, future financial problems could be avoided, he added.

Alderman Sharon Perjak at the last city council meeting came close to asking for Petrillo's resignation when she said he would have to "show up" or the city would "get somebody else." Petrillo called the remarks unfair and said it shows a lack of knowledge as to the treasurer's actual duties and the workings of his office.

One example he cited was Mrs. Perjak's contention that she visited the office and found one of the girls had gone to get cream to eat. "I checked; that out and found out it was not a girl from my office. I know who it was, but it was not one of my employees," Petrillo stated.

Petrillo also contended that to charge that the city's bills are not being paid in a timely manner are unfair. The council only approves bills twice a month and approves about 100 bills for payment at a time. It requires 10 to 15 days for the treasurer's office to prepare checks and do the paperwork associated with paying that many bills, so many are a month or more old when they are paid, but that is unavoidable with the shortage of personnel in the treasurer's office, he contended.

Arrests in Missouri

Authorities in Washington County, Mo., are holding two Granite City men and are seeking a third in connection with several auto burglaries in that area recently.

The men were found in an auto belonging to Shirley Dobson, 1932 Benton St., near Potosi, Mo., about 7:25 p.m. Sunday. At 9:05 p.m. Sunday, the owner, Robert Dobson, reported that her car had been stolen sometime after 6:30 p.m. from the rear of her apartment building. She said she left a set of keys under the front seat.

Aggravated battery probation and jail

Roosevelt Darden, 28, of Venice Homes Apartment 82 has been placed on two-year probation and sentenced to six months in the Madison County Jail for aggravated battery occurring Jan. 30 in Madison.

Circuit Judge Philip J. Ridenour sentenced Darden on four related charges against Darden—another aggravated battery count, attempted murder, level 1 violence and home invasion.

Information concerning admissions may be obtained by contacting the Office of Admissions and Records at (618) 692-2720 or undergraduate and Graduate Admissions Office at (618) 692-3160.

Venice group assaults GC men

Two Granite City men reported at 7:05 p.m. Saturday that they had been assaulted by a group of eight or nine youths, most carrying weapons, in Venice.

Everett "Timmy" Hughes, 2901 Circle Drive, and Dan Richardson, 2901 Cayuga St., told Venice police that they were parked in front of 111 Weber St., Venice, talking to a girl, when a group of youths approached, carrying weapons, one carrying "nuck-chucks," one carrying a pair of scissors. The group pulled Hughes several times with the scissors and pulled his hair, will also remain open during the evening hours.

Students will also have the opportunity to register late Sept. 28 and 29 from 8:30 a.m. until 7 p.m. in the Rendellman building lobby.

However, student support services during these two days will be limited, Magag said.

No registration will be permitted after Sept. 29. Magag added. Fall quarter classes begin Sept. 28 at 7:30 a.m.

New students must be admitted to the University prior to registering, Magag said. Information concerning admissions may be obtained by contacting the Office of Admissions and Records at (618) 692-2720 or undergraduate and Graduate Admissions Office at (618) 692-3160.

Still time to register for SIUE fall quarter

Eugene Magag, director of admissions and records at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, announced today there is still time to register for fall quarter classes at both the graduate and undergraduate levels.

Walk-in registration (without an appointment) is scheduled Sept. 23 from 1 unit p.m. and Sept. 24 from 8:30 a.m. until 9 p.m. All registration activities on these two days will be in Memorial Building in the University Center.

Magag stressed that registration has been extended to include evening hours to accommodate those who have work and family responsibilities during the registration period. Information concerning admissions may be obtained by contacting the Office of Admissions and Records at (618) 692-2720 or undergraduate and Graduate Admissions Office at (618) 692-3160.

Neighborhood to be rid of starlings

In response to an increasing number of complaints again this year regarding the perennial starling bird problem in the neighborhood immediately south of the St. John United Church of Christ cemetery on Nameoki Road, the city will attempt to rid the area of the birds beginning on Tuesday, Sept. 22.

The city will repeat the procedures again on Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 23 and 24, beginning each night at 5:30 and continuing until 8:30, weather permitting.

The use of propane cannons and noise makers will be employed to scare the birds from the area and these devices must be used on three successive nights to be effective. To accommodate the personnel involved with eradication of the bird problem, streets in the immediate area will be barricaded during the three-day period and access to the railroad easement at the entrances to 27th and 28th streets in addition to the barricades on Henry Street at Probes Avenue and 27th Street and at 28th and Short streets.

Since the procedure to rid the neighborhood of the starlings involves excessive noise to scare the birds, anyone in the area having a health problem which might be aggravated by the loud noise or anyone having a pet which might be affected are advised to make arrangements to be out of the area on the three days.

A relative found the boy running on Edwardsville Road near the Granite City-Madison border about 3:30 p.m. and returned him home.

Resignations possible over Yemm's election as chairman of 708 mental health board Controversy has developed over the July election of Dr. Ralph Yemm of Wood River as chairman of the Madison County Mental Health (708) Board at a meeting attended by only four members of the seven-member board. Two of the other members say they are angry about it.

Dr. Clarence Horton of Alton said last week that he may resign and said one or two others may join him. He contended that at the June meeting, the board voted to postpone elections until a full board was present.

One member who voted for Yemm's election, Lawrence McGuire of Madison, had just been appointed and was not acquainted with the policies within the board, Dr. Horton contended.

Others voting for Yemm were Sylvester Bigger of Collinsville, Samuel King of Madison and Yemm himself. Absent were the outgoing president, William Little of Alton, Dr. Horton and William Schreiber of Madison. Dr. Horton says

Little was not even given the courtesy of being told when his term was ending so he could give the traditional speech at the end of his term. Ironically, Little was elected secretary, even though he was not at the meeting.

Yemm said that the four members present acted on the advice of Assistant Madison County State's Attorney Marshall "Zack" Smith, who contended the board should elect officers in July, even though past boards have postponed elections beyond that month. Smith will be asked at the board's Sept. 14 meeting to explain his opinion, it was indicated.

4-year prison term for theft

Associate Judge Edward Ferguson has just sentenced Ronald Flaugh, 35, of 2605 North St., Granite City, to a total of four years in prison for two counts of felony theft Dec. 13, 1978.

A guilty verdict was reached at a trial conducted in the Third Circuit Court. The charges were filed by the Illinois secretary of state.

Judge Ferguson dismissed two other felony theft charges in the same case, vacating the verdict in those instances.

ARTISTS DRAWING of the $2.5 million condominium project proposed for construction in the Town and Country subdivision, Parkway and West Moreland Drive, by George Grove, developer. The 46 units are the first of their kind in Granite City, using six different designs.

$2.5 million condominium planned in Town and Country

Plans for a $2.5 million Townhouse design development, "Lincolnshire Court," is being announced by George Grove, project developer.

The development, which will be located in the "Town and Country" subdivision at the junction of Parkway and Westmoreland Drive across from Worthen Park in Granite City.

Grove pointed out that the 46 units in the development will have six various designs with from 1,152 to 1,391 square feet with full basement, 1½ or 2½ baths, fully equipped kitchens, all electric with optional features such as carports, patios and fireplaces.

He said the Townhouses are designed for maximum energy efficiency. Each unit has a yearly operating cost estimate prepared by Illinois Power which indicate very low utility costs.

Ernest A. "Drew" Karandjeff Jr., president of the Quad-City Chamber of Commerce, said "In the past Granite City residents have had to choose between either owning a home and accepting all of the burdens of maintenance, or renting an apartment to avoid those responsibilities and giving up the equity advantages of home ownership.

"Now an excellent alternative to these two choices is being offered which has the advantages of ownership, but avoids the major drawbacks. I think the availability of condominiums is long overdue in Granite City and will prove to be an attractive choice for many of our residents."

Sales will be handled by Re-Max of Granite City (618) 877-8800, with a price range of $50,650 to $82,000, Grove said.

Arrest former student of North

A physical education teacher at Granite City High School North reported a group of former students has been school property on several occasions since school began and had shouted insults at several faculty members at various times, including a few moments earlier when one of the youths removed his clothing and made a physically obscene gesture in front of the teacher and students.

An official went to the homes of four former students and ordered three of the youths to stay away from school property, or face arrest.

They arrested the fourth youth, Richard G. Buer, 17, of Box 81, Rural Route One, charging him with disorderly conduct. He was released on payment of a $35 cash bond.

Q. What will happen to individual Retirement Accounts under the new economic measures? And, with the tax cut, will they still be an attractive shelter?

A. Both the Administration and Congress feel individual Retirement Accounts should be the maximum allowed contributions and in the kinds of people able to participate in the new bill, for the first time, people who are already in tax-qualified pension plans (for example, through their employer's pension plan) can have their own individual Retirement Account to enable them to increase their retirement savings while at the same time receiving valuable tax deductions. Also, the new bill increases the maximum allowance to be deducted from taxable income from $1,500 to $2,000. For persons who are married, spouses, the limit has increased to $2,250. And, yes, individual Retirement Accounts are attractive, if not more so, both as savings instruments and as tax shelters.

Governor assailed by former governor

Former Illinois governor Dan Walker last week assailed Governor James Thompson for supporting legislation (HB 438) that would eliminate the ceiling on interest rates for consumer loans.

Speaking at the annual Roosevelt dinner of St. Clair County Democrats, Walker told the Belleville crowd of 2,000 that this was just the "latest horrifying example" of a "leadership gap" in Springfield.

Said Walker: "At a time when high interest rates have replaced inflation as the number one concern of the American people, the governor not only doesn't speak up, he makes the situation worse."

Walker also cited Illinois' unemployment and dwindling state cash reserves as "devastating economic problems which Thompson has failed to solve."

Referring to the Republican Party as "the party of mismanagement and misleadership," Walker predicted that Illinois will "lead the nation in making 1982 a Democratic year."

The former governor declared on Aug. 6 that he was interested in becoming the Democratic candidate for governor in 1982, and would be talking to Democrats and other friends and supporters around the state before making his decision.

New food stamp guidelines to save $1.3 billion a year

New rules will change the way food stamp eligibility is determined and how benefits are calculated, starting Oct. 1. According to Mary C. Jarratt, assistant secretary of agriculture for Food and Consumer Services, the new rules will implement portions of the Omnibus Reconciliation Act of 1981 and are aimed at saving $1.3 billion in federal costs for the food stamp program in fiscal year 1982.

The regulations set a gross monthly income eligibility limit for all food stamp households except those with elderly or disabled members. Under the present law, eligibility is determined on the basis of a household's net monthly income, a figure derived by subtracting the $85 food stamp "standard deduction" and any other allowable child care, excess shelter, earned income, or medical deductions from the household's gross monthly income.

Starting Oct. 1, eligibility will be calculated using a household's gross monthly income, before deductions. Under the new rules, households whose gross incomes exceed 130 percent of the official poverty line will be declared ineligible. This change is expected to save $244 million and will affect approximately four percent of the food stamp caseload, or 875,000 people. The new gross monthly income limit for a family of four is $916, or around $11,000 annually.

Other changes in food stamp eligibility requirements alter the definition of a food stamp "household," and ban benefits to boarders and strikers.

Current program rules enable a household that meets the income and assets limits to get food stamps, even if the household's low income is the result of a family member on strike. Now, striker households that apply for stamps will be denied benefits unless they were eligible to receive food stamps before the strike began. These eligible households, however, will not be entitled to increased benefits, under the new rules.

All told, the changes in the eligibility rules are expected to save $355 million next year.

Major cost savings next year also will be achieved through a new rule to prorate a household's first month's benefits. Existing rules permit a household joining the food stamp program to get a full month's allotment, regardless of the day of the month that it applies. Beginning Oct. 1, a household will receive benefits from the day that it applies, instead of for the whole month. This change is expected to save $411 million in fiscal year 1982.

Most food stamp recipients will be affected by a rule change that will index the standard and child care and excess shelter deductions less frequently. Presently, the food stamp program grants all households a standard deduction of $85 and permits households with child care or unusually high shelter costs a combined deduction of up to $115 for these expenses. Existing rules provide for an annual update of both deductions, each January.

The new regulations will freeze the standard and child care and excess shelter deductions at $85 and $115 until July, 1983, and base the July increase on consumer price index data for the 15 months ending March 31, 1983.

Savings resulting from this change are expected to be $128 million.

An additional savings of $385 million planned when new regulations delay the cost-of-living update of the Thrifty Food Plan, which is normally adjusted annually in January. The new rules will schedule the next adjustments for April, 1982, July, 1983, October, 1984, and every October after that.

The Thrifty Food Plan is used to calculate how many food stamps a household may receive. The size of a household's monthly benefit is determined by subtracting 30 percent of the household's net income from the amount of money it would cost to feed a household its size according to the Thrifty Food Plan. A family of four with no income now gets $223.

Households that have earned income will be permitted to deduct 18 percent of their gross earnings, rather than the current 20 percent, to offset work-related expenses under new rules covering the "earnings disregard." This decrease in the amount a household with earnings can deduct for work expenses is expected to save $49 million in Fiscal Year 1982, and will reduce benefits by at least $6 to nearly forty percent of working households that receive food stamps. Approximately 20 percent of the food stamp program's eight million households have earned income.

These are the regulatory changes published in the Federal Register Sept. 4. Comments on the new rules will be accepted through Jan. 4, 1982, and should be sent to: Albert Frost, deputy administrator for family nutrition programs, Food and Nutrition Service, USDA, Washington, D.C., 20250.

Possible grants for Illinois firms using coal for energy

Commercial and industrial firms interested in using Illinois coal as an energy source are invited to apply for grants from the State of Illinois, the state energy agency has announced.

Businesses have until Dec. 15, to submit applications for funding, said Frank Beal, director of the Illinois Institute of Natural Resources.

Funds will be awarded to firms which propose ways of using Illinois coal as their primary energy source while meeting environmental and economic standards, Beal said.

The source of the grants will be the $65 million Illinois Coal Bond Fund, which was established to promote the development of technologies that can increase the usefulness of the state's high sulfur coal. The Bond Fund previously has provided $18 million in financing for a coal gasification plant under construction at an electric utility, and $750,000 for an innovative fluidized-bed boiler to produce steam at a navy base on Lake Michigan.

"The grants we are making available are intended to focus on coal use in the commercial and industrial sectors, which have special energy needs of their own," Beal said. "There clearly is room for more use of coal by business, which now accounts for 55 percent of the natural gas and 30 percent of the petroleum used in Illinois."

The Institute of Natural Resources is responsible for managing the Coal Bond Fund. It accepts proposals for grant funds, evaluates the proposals and makes recommendations for funding. The Energy Resources Commission, a legislative advisory body, approves the awarding of grants.

INR can recommend financing up to 25 percent of the cost of a coal project from the Bond Fund with project sponsors providing the remainder themselves or seeking additional sponsors. The Institute anticipates that proposals will come from energy-intensive industries, such as those producing primary metals, glass or chemicals as well as those processing food, Director Beal said. However, other businesses and institutions may apply if the technologies involved can be adopted widely by businesses.

Eligibility conditions include: The project must be located in Illinois; The project must be designed to use high sulfur Illinois coal as the primary energy source; and The project sponsor must be a large energy user, requiring either 50 million BTU's or 50,000 pounds of steam per hour, although the proposed project will not have to be the sole source of that energy.

Proposed projects could include new construction, conversion of an existing energy system or retrofit as long as the resulting system will use Illinois coal. Among the coal technologies considered appropriate for industrial and commercial applications are fluidized-bed combustion, coal gasification systems or conventional boilers using pollution control systems, but other technologies will be considered on their merits. All proposed projects should hold significant potential for commercial success — that is, use by other businesses in the near future.

Interested businesses can obtain further information by writing or calling Ram Reddy, Illinois Institute of Natural Resources, 325 West Adams Street, Springfield, IL 62706, telephone 217-785-7200.

State traffic deaths drop

Illinois traffic fatalities continue to decline while the traffic trend rises.

During August, Illinois had 165 traffic fatalities, bringing the statewide total to 1,233, a reduction of 73 compared to the same period last year. Illinois had 16 traffic fatalities during the Labor Day holiday, compared to 24 last year.

During August, District 11 had six fatalities, which established a record low for the previous 18 months. As of Sept. 1, the district had 84 fatalities, six less than last year during the same period.

If the state continues to reduce traffic fatalities at the present rate, by the end of this year we will have 1,850 traffic fatalities, a reduction of 144, from last year.

Cougars take own tournament

EDWARDSVILLE — The SIU-Edwardsville soccer team continued their winning streak here Saturday night with a 2-0 victory over Cleveland State. The victory gives the Cougars' first goal in the championship game of the Cougar Invitational Tournament at Cougar Field.

SIUE had trounced Southern Methodist University 5-0 in Friday's semifinal, while Cleveland State bounced Rockhurst 3-0 to advance to the championship tilt.

Against the Vikings of Cleveland State, SIUE took the early lead and never looked back. The Cougars' first goal was scored by Steve Gauvain off an assist from teammate Pat Malloy. He took a perfect head pass to his right foot and let go with the shot. At 8:35 of the first half, SIUE had a 1-0 lead.

The Cougars' second goal came at 3:12 of the second half when Craig Gumpel scored unassisted after a length-of-the-field rush.

The victory gives the Cougars, ranked 14th in the latest NCAA Soccer Poll, a 1-0 record.

Friday against SMU, the Cougars rode the foot of Pat Malloy to victory. He managed just three shots but made good on each one with the three-goal "hat trick."

Pat Malloy of SIUE was named Most Valuable Player in the tournament. Rockhurst College defeated SMU 3-0 for third place Saturday night.

South harriers finish fourth

BELLEVILLE — The Granite City South cross country team finished a strong fourth here Saturday in the running of the annual Belleville West Invitational Cross Country Invitational.

South finished with 22 points. Pattonville, Mo. won the meet with 13 points followed by Belleville East and Belleville West in a tie for second place with 17 points each. Centralia was fifth with 25. Granite City North and Alton finished in a tie for eighth place with 47 points each.

South's Dave McLean was a second overall and second in the first flight behind Dave Gompers of Belleville East. McLean's time was 14:35, compared to Gompers' 14:35.

Jim McQuaide of South was third in the second flight with a time of 15:13. John Peters of North was eighth in the second flight with a time of 16:00. Ken Meyer of North was 10th in the first flight in 16:10.

Shells bomb Indians in Valley showdown

MASCOUTAH — Public Notice: The Roxana Shells 100th career victory in the process with the Mississippi Valley Conference win.

The Shells jumped out to an early lead and were never in danger. They led 7-0 at the end of the first quarter after a one-yard run by Loren Schriener and PAT by Dave Price. In the second quarter, quarterback Price found Kevin Kerr in the end zone and hit him with a five-yard touchdown pass after the Shells had blocked a Mascoutah punt at the seven-yard line. Brian Brokaw had a touchdown run of 10 yards later in the period. The PAT made it 21-0. The final score in the first half was seven yard run by Brokaw and PAT by Price.

In the second half, Mascoutah's defense tightened up, allowing only a third quarter touchdown run of seven yards by Barry Bodenbach on Roxana's first possession.

Benjamin's wins state

ALBANY — The Benjamin's softball team captured the Illinois State Class "B" championship here last weekend, winning six straight games enroute to the title.

Benjamin's finished second in its Granite City Park District Regional, but emerged unscathed from the State Tournament. The Expos, winners of the Granite City Regional, finished fourth at the State Finals.

Benjamin's bounced Carbondale 12-6 in Sunday's championship game, after edging Champaign 6-4 in a semifinal matchup.

In the first round, Benjamin's defeated Randolph 7-1. In the second round, it beat Variety Vending from Bloomington 9-0.

In the third round, Benjamin's beat Moline 6-2. In the quarterfinals, the Granite Cityans beat the River Raisin from Chillicothe 7-1.

Don't blame Tempy

Dear Editor,

Why is it that it takes the Garry Templeton incident for the baseball Cardinals to make the paper?

I enjoyed the way the Templeton story (Aug. 31) was written, as I have others written in that fashion. But I think the whole incident has been handled poorly.

First of all, the comment in your article about Templeton saying "If I ain't startin', I ain't departin'," concerning the All-Star game — you can't blame Templeton. People drill it into him that he's the best, then say they don't want him.

If Garry Templeton wants to be traded, so what? At first, he said it was to be closer to his family. Sounds like a fair reason to me. With all the put-downs from the fans lately, maybe he'd feel more comfortable some place else. He's supposed to be the best, yet if he makes an error, the crowd goes on him. The man is only human!

Obscene gestures have been made in public before because someone couldn't handle the pressure from abusive groups. Nelson Rockefeller made one at a National Republican Convention to a whole crowd of people. No one crucified him.

As far as Templeton's manager being mad at him — who cares? Whitney Herzog has the intelligence of a sweet sock and shouldn't have made such a scene in the dugout. The scuffle (if there had to be one) should have been behind closed doors.

Garry Templeton doesn't need a plausible excuse. The fans owe him more of an apology than he owes them. We should be begging him to forgive us and agree to come back.

As for Cardinal fans being the best baseball fans in America — that's a crock too. We proved that when we wouldn't accept Templeton's problems, much the same way Houston was when J. R. Richard said his arm was "tired," and then suffered a stroke.

I don't blame Templeton for what happened. I'm surprised he didn't blow up sooner. I've lost no respect for the man.

Teams needed

GRANITE CITY — The Granite City Park District is currently accepting team applications into the 1981 women's soccer program. The entry fee is $85. Entry fees are currently being accepted at the park office.

Closing date for entry fees is Sept. 22 at 5 p.m.

League play will begin Sunday, Sept. 27. For further information, those interested may contact the park office at 877-3059.

Judo at YMCA

GRANITE CITY — The Tri-City Area YMCA will hold an introductory night on Thursday, Sept. 24, for persons interested in judo, from 6 to 7 p.m.

Judo is open to youth, ages 8 through 17, and adults. Bob Hill instructs the class, which is held on Tuesday and Thursday from 5 to 7 p.m.

The class meets for four weeks, and the fee for YMCA members is $6 and $14 for others.

The next session of Judo will begin Oct. 5. Registrations are being taken now at the YMCA, 2001 Edison Avenue, Granite City.

Cagers sign

EDWARDSVILLE — Tom Pugliese, new head basketball coach at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, has signed his first recruit of the season to a national letter of intent with the Cougars. Archie Tyson, a 6'2 1/2" guard from Newark, N.J., comes to SIUE after an outstanding prep career at Weequahic High School (N.J.) and two all-star campaigns at Columbia Junior College of California.

Tyson, a two-year selection to the all-city team and a scholastic All-American while in high school, led WIS in steals and assists while finishing second in scoring and rebounding his senior year.

As a senior, Tyson averaged 22 points and six rebounds per outing.

While at Columbia Junior College, Tyson posted back-to-back all conference honors. While regarded as one of the premier ball-handlers in the junior college ranks, Tyson pumped in 10.7 points per game, leading the Central Valley Conference in 1981.

Following the signing, Coach Pugliese commented, "We are very pleased to have signed such a highly-regarded player as Archie. He is an outstanding competitor and has proven ability against a high caliber of basketball opponents."

Soccer openings

GRANITE CITY — The Granite City Park District is currently accepting team applications into the 1981 Women's Soccer Program. The entry fee is $85. Entry fees are currently being accepted at the Park Office.

Closing date for entry fees is September 22 at 5 p.m.

League play will begin Sunday, Sept. 27. For further information, those interested may contact the Park Office at 877-3059.

Baseball meeting

GRANITE CITY — The Granite City Park District is inviting all 1981 baseball managers and coaches to attend the first in a series of five baseball run revision meetings to be held at the Nameoki Recreation Center. The first meeting is scheduled for Sept. 24 at 7 p.m.

All interested parties are urged to attend, a spokesman said. The remaining meetings are slated for Oct. 8, Oct. 29, Nov. 19, and Dec. 10. All remaining meetings will be at the Nameoki Recreation Center at 7 p.m.

Swimmers start

GRANITE CITY — The Tri-City YMCA Swim Team is beginning its 1981-1982 season. The coach this year is Karen Smith, 25, a graduate of Eastern Illinois University, with a master's degree in physical education.

Smith previously swam at B. County YMCA where she was Swimmer of the Year in 1978. She also holds title of Swimmer of the Year of the Eastern for 1977, 1978 and 1979. Smith coached the Charleston swim team in 1979.

Last year the local YMCA swim team sent 20 swimmers to Illinois State Championships in Chicago, Illinois and hopes for an equally successful year this year.

Anyone interested in joining our team may contact the YMCA at 876-7200 for further information on practice times and fees.

Indoor soccer

GRANITE CITY — Registrations are being taken now at the Tri-City Area YMCA for a boys indoor soccer program to begin Dec. 6 and run through Feb. 7, 1982. The indoor soccer program is for boys ages 6 to 8.

The emphasis in the YMCA soccer program is on development of basic skills, as well as fair play, respect for opponents, and for the rules of the game.

The registration fee for soccer is $6 for members and $8 for others, for the eight week program. Registration deadline is Nov. 23.

The YMCA is also looking for volunteers to coach soccer. Those interested in volunteering, please contact the YMCA.

Bowen at CMC

FAYETTE, Mo. — Gerald Bowen of Granite City, Ill., has been named to the Central Methodist College varsity football squad for the 1981 season. The announcement was made by the Eagles' head coach Don Shinnick.

IN A BIND. Granite City's Allen Prengel (on ground) tries to shake off leg cramps with the aid of an athletic trainer and teammate Karl Luehmann (12) Saturday night during North's 17-0 victory over Collinsville at Memorial Stadium.

stepped up to take the snap. On the following play, it was back to Luehmann. DePew, wearing number 43, could have been one of the highest-numbered quarterbacks ever. But whatever the case, it worked. "It depended on the situation, as to who we'd use at quarterback," said Wyrostek. "We've been working on that most of the week." DePew is normally the backup quarterback for North anyway.

Not only did DePew play quarterback, full back and place kicker, he also punted, played linebacker and kicked off. He contributed a interception of an errant Kahoks pass to the cause in the second half. "A heck of a game from Daren," said Wyrostek. "There's not much else he could've done on the field."

Things didn't go quite so well for Collinsville. After the upset of Edwardsville a week ago, the Kahoks found out that North wasn't impressed. The proud Collinsville defense bent and broke much of the night under the pressure put on by the fired-up Steeler line. "I think getting up early might have gotten Collinsville down some," said Wyrostek. "But the interceptions didn't hurt, either."

North's defense picked off four Collinsville passes, one of which drove the last nail in the Kahoks' coffin. Blumner, while in the grasp of a host of Steeler pass rushers, tried to dump the ball off. He did. Right into the waiting arms of North's Jim Wyrostek, the coach's son. He rambled some 55 yards to paydirt. DePew's PAT made it 17-0. "I guess I'm a little tougher on my own boys when they play for me," said Coach Wyrostek. "At least that's what my wife tells me."

The victory raises North's record to 1-1 heading into next week's game at Wood River. Collinsville is also 1-1.

Cards

Hart's TD pass to Green on the Cards' first play in the final game of the season made it 10-0. The extra point attempt was blocked.

In the second quarter, O'Donoghue kicked a 47-yard field goal to give St. Louis the lead for good, 12-10. Then Mitchell's dramatic punt returned made it 19-10.

After Monk's TD catch, St. Louis struck again when Hart hit Greg LaFluer with a 27-yard TD pass on a slant pass across the middle to make it 26-17 at halftime.

Perhaps the most disappointed Redskin was running back Terry Metcalf, the former Cardinal All-Pro who jumped to the Canadian Football League four seasons ago.

In his first appearance against his former team, he returned all the kickoffs for the Redskins, averaging 17 yards a return. But he wanted a win for the now 0-3 Redskins. "I thought I'd get into the game a little more," he said. "I never got a good feeling about the game. I never felt really involved."

"When I got here this morning, I took a walk around the Stadium," said Metcalf, who led St. Louis to twopoint berths in the mid-1970s. "It all came back to me. Coach Correll, Jimmy (Hart), Otis, Mel Gray. All the great games we played here. But when the game started, it was business as usual."

When he was introduced to the sellout crowd over 50,000, he was roundly booed. "It didn't bother me," he said. "I heard them when I played here."

O'Fallon holds on to edge South

By ROGER KRAMER for the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — Granite City South football coach Jerry McKechean said his Warriors improved substantially since its 62-0 season opening loss to Belleville East, as O'Fallon used the right combination of short and long plays to defeat the Warriors 23-22 Friday in Granite South's home opener.

"I don't want to compare this game to last week. It was a 100 percent improvement from last week. The boys worked hard all week in practice and in the game, and we didn't have a lot of penalties," McKechean said.

"We showed a lot of character being down 14-0 in the first quarter and coming so close," McKechean said. "If we improve this coming week like we did this past week, then we're going to be tougher as the year goes on."

In the opening minutes of the first quarter, O'Fallon looked like it would run away from the Warriors in the same way Belleville East did in the opener. Using a series of long and short running plays, the Panthers jumped to a 14-0 lead.

O'Fallon scored on its first and second series. On the first series, the Panthers used three short running plays to get a first down at South's 48, but a holding penalty sent O'Fallon back to its 34.

After a one yard pass play, Berry Barber found a hole to his left and ran 65 yards for the touchdown. The PAT made the score 7-0 with 9:09 to go in the period.

O'Fallon started with a long running play in its second series. Alan Scott also ran up the left side from the Panthers' 42 to the Warrior 16. On fourth down and three, sophomore Troy Robinson got the call for a nine yard touchdown run with 4:15 left in the first quarter. The PAT was good.

Instead of giving up then, the Warriors used the next series to score its first touchdown of the season. A 33 yard kickoff return by Tim Pielke, four running plays, and an offside penalty brought South from its 16 to the Panther 29.

On the next play, Warrior quarterback John Linhart passed to Dan Harris for the touchdown. The conversion run failed, but the touchdown fired up the Warriors to stop the Panthers in the second quarter.

For instance, O'Fallon threatened to score in the second period, and the Panthers had just one yard to go for a touchdown. Yet the Warriors defense tackled Scott for a loss of two yards and on fourth down, forced O'Fallon to attempt a pass to kill the drive.

A bad snap to Warrior punter Rick Daily caused him to be tackled at his own 14 yard line in the third quarter. On the next play, O'Fallon quarterback found Tom Georgia kneeling in the end zone for a 14 yard touchdown play. The PAT gave the Panthers its largest lead.

O'Fallon aided the Warriors score their next touchdown with two personal fouls — facemask and roughing the passer. Linhart threw to Joe Schefke, who wrestled with a Panther safety for possession. Schefke won 18 yards a 31 yard touchdown. Daily to run in the conversion to narrow O'Fallon's lead to 21-14.

O'Fallon put things in hand with a 52 yard pass play from Fleming to Mark Warack, capping a series of short running plays.

The Warriors scored with 4:14 to go in the game on a two yard run by Harris. Daily's run for the extra point gave South some hope for a comeback victory, but the Panthers successfully held the ball for the rest of the game to snuff out any hopes for a Warrior win.

Lebanon, the warning stopped the clock.

Christ found the left side of the goal protected by the Trojans, but he found Cornish open on the right side of the goal. Again, Christ kicked from midfield and found his target, Cornish, open behind most of the Madison defense.

Cornish dribbled the ball and kicked towards the right side of the goal. The ball got past the reach of goalkeepers Avery Crawford, and the Greyhounds pulled off their come-from-behind victory.

"I owe it all to the Lord," Cornish said. "I prayed to Him before the game to help me play well, and I thank him with all my heart that I was able to score the goal."

Schleppe credited Christ with much of the success of the scoring play.

"He had to call the play in that situation, and he decided to chip it over to the middle. There were no defenders in that part of the field because they were expecting a crocked ball."

Cornish had a lot of time to get in close and score," Schleppe said.

Madison coach Gene Briggs knew there was something wrong when he saw Christ kick the ball to Cornish. "They could have been offside because it looked like he (Cornish) was behind our

National team downs Canada in Tourney

NEW YORK — With a convincing 3-0 victory over Canada in the final game of THE CONCACAF Northern Zone Youth Tournament, Sunday tucked securely under its collective belt, the United States Youth Team will embark on its final training phase for the FIFA World Youth Championship for The Coca-Cola Cup in Australia buoyed with confidence.

"Playing well and beating Canada the way we did will give us a big psychological boost — this game will carry over to our preparation in Europe and Australia," said U.S. National Coach Walt Chyzowych following the Sept. 6 win over the Canadians, a triumph that gave the young Americans second place behind Mexico in the four-nation tournamet in Colorado Springs, Colo.

The U.S., which will depart for West Germany, Sept. 14 to resume training for next month's 16-nation world event in Australia, received goals from Roger Janiette, Chris Hundert and Tom Kain and a flawless performance in goal by Eric Scarpelli against Canada.

The closing victory came on the heels of a frustrating 2-2 draw with Bermuda and a bitterly-contested 1-0 loss to Mexico in the round-robin international tournament in the Rockies.

Canada, which along with Bermuda fielded its Olympic team consisting of Under-23 aged players in preparation for the 1984 Games in Los Angeles while Mexico and the U.S. youth squads of 20-and-under players competed, fell behind at the outset when Janiette scored two goals in the first half. The Americans went up 2-0 at the 53-minute mark when Hundert scored from 30 yards and added an insurance goal 15 minutes later by forward Tom Kain. A free kick goal by John Stollmeyer was disallowed due to an offside violation.

Though holding a decided 17-2 advantage in shots on goal over Bermuda, the U.S. needed a goal by Mark Deery with 1:42 remaining to gain a draw. Kenneth Burt scored on Bermuda's only two shots, scoring in the fifth and 69th minutes, while Amr Aly, who debuted for the National Youth Team against Mexico two days earlier, scored to make it 1-1 at the 55-minute juncture. Deery, GETTING INVITATIONS ready to mail for the Fall Fun Festival and Auction at the Specialized Living Center, 1450 Caseyville Ave., Swansea, is Paula Baker of Granite City, seated, assisted by her teacher, Linda Hibbler of East St. Louis.

Auction, carnival to benefit center

Parents and Friends of the Specialized Living Center, located at 1450 Caseyville Ave., Swansea, will sponsor a Fall Fun Festival, featuring a carnival, luncheon and auction, starting at 10 a.m. Saturday, Sept. 26. The public is invited to attend.

Several handicapped youngsters from the Quad-Cities are at the living center.

Parents of the local young people are involved in organizing the festival and are requesting donated items from area residents to be auctioned at the event.

Persons willing to donate new or used items, with the exception of clothing, are asked to call 931-3930 for pickup service.

All proceeds from the auction will be used to benefit the youthful residents of the facility, it was stated.

The auction will get underway at 11 a.m. Saturday at the center, with the carnival beginning at 10 a.m. Lunch, costing $1 per person, will be served from 12 noon until 12:45 p.m. and will include a hot dog, potato salad, baked beans, dessert and soft drink.

The Specialized Living Center is a relatively new concept and currently houses 100 residents.

Many of the young people have physical handicaps, as well as being severely retarded.

Further information may be obtained by calling the number listed above.

Seek funding for Nameoki sewers

Sanitary sewers for State Park Place, Eagle Park Acres, East Madison the Cloverleaf Subdivision of Nameoki Township may be possible if legislation passed by Congress nearly a quarter of a century ago is still in effect.

Harry Briggs, supervisor of Nameoki Township, said at the town board's regular meeting last week that he has sent a letter to U.S. Senator Alan J. Dixon asking him to research whether special legislation passed by Congress about 25 years ago is still in effect, providing 90-10 funding for sanitary sewers in economically depressed areas.

The legislation, passed for the Kinloch, Mo., provided for the federal government to pay 90 percent of the cost of installing the sewers while the local area paid only 10 percent. Briggs said that if 90 percent funding is available for depressed areas, he feels the township could sell revenue bonds for the remaining 10 percent of the construction cost and repay the bonds through user fees.

"Revenue bonds wouldn't be a burden on the people like the general obligation bonds used for the Four Township Sewers. The people in State Park Place, Cloverleaf, Eagle Park and East Madison need it really badly. It is a shame when I drive through and see what they have to live with. I hope we can get sewers for them," Briggs said.

In other business last week, the township passed a resolution to send to governor asking him to sign a bill which would allow township assessors to obtain a duplicate set of assessment books early to speed their assessments and eliminate delays caused by waiting for the county's Board of Review action. Madison County adopted a similar resolution last month.

Highway Commissioner Frank Mchelic said he has sent a letter to Lester Miller, county superintendent of the type of pump the township has been borrowing from S.M. Wilson & Co. in flooding situations and has proved to have very low maintenance costs. The board approved $50 a month raises for three secretaries in the township office, Shirley Denso, Dee Stoyanoff and Virginia Biggs.

The trustees also decided to increase the expense allowance for the town inspector, Lester Kraft, by $50 a month to compensate for manent blacktopping of streets which qualify in the township. Miller will prepare an application for the committee which distributes the grant funds.

The board granted permission for the township to purchase a three-inch pump for water removal from roads, ditches and fields, when needed. The township's Board of Health had authorized the purchase two weeks ago. The pump is to be purchased for $851 from Brettmann Supply Co., St. Louis.

Briggs said the purchase is being made without competitive bidding, because Brettmann is the area's distributor of the type of pump the township has been borrowing from S.M. Wilson & Co. in flooding situations and has proved to have very low maintenance costs. The board approved $50 a month raises for three secretaries in the township office, Shirley Denso, Dee Stoyanoff and Virginia Biggs.

MR. AND MRS. PAUL GULASH.
1129 Meridian St. They celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary at a reception held at their home Saturday evening.

First Church of Nazarene to mark 50th anniversary

The First Church of the Nazarene, 4701 Highway 111, will celebrate the 50th anniversary of the church on Sunday, Sept. 27, according to the pastor, the Rev. William H. Roddy.

Services will convene at 9:30 a.m. and 10:30 a.m., with the District Superintendent John Hancock delivering the sermon. He was elected to the district office in July of this year, the host minister added.

A potluck dinner will be served at 12 noon at the Chouteau Township Hall with an anniversary service scheduled for 3 p.m., at the church, featuring the Rev. E. L. Latham, the first pastor of the congregation, as guest minister.

A social reception will follow the 3 o'clock service in the church fellowship hall. According to Rev. Roddy, the church was organized on Sept. 27, 1931, and four charter members are still living. Former pastors are also returning for the celebration which is open to area residents.

60th anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Gulash

Mr. and Mrs. Paul (Ann) Gulash, 1129 Meridian St., celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary with a mass of Thanksgiving at St. Mary Roman Catholic Church in Madison, followed by a reception at their home on Saturday, Sept. 19, attended by many local and out of town guests.

Hosting the festivities were their children, Mrs. Carl (Mary) Williams, Miss Theresa Gulash, Sister Pauline Gulash, C.D.P., Michael and George Gulash. Mr. Gulash and his wife, the former Ann Belusko, were married on Sept. 19, 1921, at Holy Rosary Church in Hartsboro, Ohio.

They are the parents of six children, but lost their eldest son, Joseph Gulash, during World War II. They also have four grandchildren, Carl Williams, Barbara Williams, Alfred, Joseph and David Gulash, and two great-grandchildren, Stephen Williams and Lisa Ann Gulash.

Mr. Gulash worked at Granite City Steel for 41 years as a pipefitter, prior to his retirement on Aug. 26, 1965. He celebrated his 80th birthday in August.

Mr. and Mrs. Gulash are still active with a variety of interests and enjoy spending much of their time maintaining their flower and vegetable garden.

MR. AND MRS. ALBERT SANDERS. of Madison. They observed their 50th wedding anniversary at an informal reception hosted by their children at the Knights of Columbus Hall. The couple was married on Sept. 1, 1936, at St. Mary Roman Catholic Church in Madison. Mrs. Sanders is the former Dorothy Kierulff and Mr. Sanders is a former resident of Alton.

The engagement of Miss Jenice Larson of Edwardsville and James Belling, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Belling, of Granite City, is being announced.

Parents of the bride-to-be are Melvin Larson, Iowa City, Iowa, and Mrs. Ruby Larson, of North Liberty, Iowa.

Miss Larson is attending Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, where she is studying nursing. She is a graduate of West Branch High School in Iowa.

The groom-elect was graduated from North High School in 1975, and is also attending SIUE. He is employed at St. Elizabeth Medical Center and served four years as a hospital corpsman with the U.S. Navy.

Wedding plans are indefinite at the present time.

Karl Sykes and Len Wright

Wright-Sykes

Announcement is being made of the engagement of Miss Karl L. Sykes, daughter of Scott Sykes, 378 Jeanette Drive, and the late Mrs. Jan Sykes, and Len Wright, by the bride-elect's father.

The prospective groom is the son of Mrs. Gloria Wright, 6 Huntington Drive, Belleville, and the late Gordon L. Wright.

Miss Sykes was graduated this year from North High School where she was a member of the band and Future Secretaries Association. She is now employed as a laboratory secretary at St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

Her fiancé was graduated in 1978 from Belleville High School West and is attending Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Plans are being completed by the engaged couple for an Oct. 17 wedding to be solemnized at St. Matthew Methodist Church in Belleville.

Parkview PTA hears speaker

Joe Williams of the American Red Cross, was the guest speaker at the first meeting of Parkview School PTA, held last week.

He demonstrated how to save a choking victim by using the Heimlich maneuver and presented a talk on the subject.

To open the business meeting, Diane Wheelert, current president, introduced other officers who will serve for the school term. They included Marilyn McKeehan, vice-president, Karen Melton, secretary and Arlene Wyatt, treasurer. Also presented were committee chairmen.

The meeting was then turned over to Principal Agnes Fryntzko who introduced the teachers and staff.

Fifth grade students of Mrs. Cassy and Mrs. Talley also recited the American's Creed at the beginning of the meeting. Those participating were Abigail Adeleberger, Laurie Melton, Mike Parkinson, David Chapman, Clayton Givens, Brenda Chilton, Ryan Thebeau, Lisa Scatturo, Christa Morgan and Michael Raines.

Glen Binkleys name son Andrew Aaron

Andrew Aaron is the name selected by Mr. and Mrs. Glen Binkley of Myrtle Beach Air Force Base, Myrtle Beach, S.C., for their first child.

The new arrival was born on Aug. 17, at the AFB Hospital, and weighed eight pounds, one ounce.

Grandparents include Mr. and Mrs. Larry Knipping and Mrs. Ruth Day and the late Richard Day all of Granite City. A great-grandmother resides in Piedmont, Mo.

Back to school picnic at park

Granite City Moose Lodge 272 held a "back to school" picnic at Wilson Park for the children of Moose members, last week.

Virgil Singler, secretary of the local lodge was chairman of the event. Games were directed by Vernest Vondra, assisted by Marian and Patricia Lipscomb.

Each child received a balloon, a bank and a prize. Refreshments of hot dogs and soda was served by the Women of the Moose, Chapter 247, to 33 children.

Have a safe harvest

Illinois Power has maintained a special relationship with its farm customers for a long time. Our farm specialists spend their days talking with farmers, getting to know the unique problems of today's complex agri-business, and helping our farm customers use energy to make their acreage more productive and their personal lives more rewarding.

We're also very much aware of the importance of safety on the farm. This time of year, for instance, there could be a potential safety hazard in using those tall grain augers anywhere in the vicinity of electric power lines. Grain augers are metal—and a perfect electrical conductor. If one of them touches a power line, someone could get a serious electrical shock.

This year's corn and soybean crops from Illinois will again be a major factor in feeding the U.S. and the world, as well as supplying raw material for industry.

So have a good harvest—and a safe one. And remember you can always get expert advice for using energy on the farm from Illinois Power.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Boyd

Boyd-Hudson

Miss Karen A. Hudson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Hudson of Edwardsville, formerly of Granite City, became the bride of Anthony J. Boyd, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Paul H. Welch, 2510 W. Lee St., Pensacola, Fla., on July 31 at the Apostolic Pentecostal Church in St. Louis. The Rev. Steven T. Wilford and the Rev. Paul Welch officiated at the double ring ceremony at 7 p.m. Nuptial selections were provided by William Hubbard and Linda Schmidt.

Candlelighters were Kathy Hubbard, a sister of the bride, Teresa Emmett and Robert and David Boyd, brothers of the groom.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride chose a white organza gown designed in an old fashioned style with a fitted bodice and yoke trimmed in Wedgewood lace.

Matching lace accented the bishop sleeves and tiered skirt.

She wore an Australian style hat of embroidered lace enhanced with silk flowers and a veil at the back. Her bouquet was an arrangement of white silk roses and greenery.

Following the installation, a luncheon was served to 26 guests and members. A social hour of games was enjoyed with the donations being made to the Nurses' Scholarship Fund.

A short business meeting concluded the afternoon's activities. Contributions made to the American Legion Child Welfare Foundation for research in cystic fibrosis, tuberculosis, and lung diseases, also to the National Jewish Hospital in Denver, Colo., for the

Mr. and Mrs. James Louis

Louis-Benson

An out of town wedding of interest here was that of Miss Joyce E. Benson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Benson, 167 LeGrande, Aurora, Ill., and James C. Louis Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Louis, 2355 Pontoon Road, on July 18 at Wesley Methodist Church in Aurora.

The double ring ceremony was performed at 3 o'clock in the afternoon by the host minister.

Attending the bride were Martha Benson, a sister of the bride, as maid of honor and bridesmaids, Janet Triner, another sister of the bride, Jaimee Louis Jacques, the groom's sister, and Jane Conklin.

Tom Schocker served as best man. James Triner, Michael Jacques, and groomsmen.

Russell Jenkins were

Lisa Lewis, a niece of the groom, presided over the guest book at a reception given at the Tinslake Club in Aurora. The rehearsal dinner was hosted at Nino's Restaurant also in Aurora.

A graduate of West Aurora High School and Aurora College, the bride is now teaching at Nancy Hill Grade School, Aurora. She is a member of Delta Phi Alpha Sorority.

The groom was graduated from North High School and Aurora College where his fraternity was Omicron Gamma Alpha. He is now working as a programmer for Lee Walsh in Elgin, Ill.

They are residing in Aurora, following a wedding trip to Lake Lawn in Delavin, Wis.

Hale-Fenton

Miss Teresa Fenton, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Norman Fenton, 2416 Grand Ave., and Marine Second Lieutenant Kevin D. Hale, of Austin, Texas, were united in marriage in an evening ceremony at the Spring Street Assembly of God Church in Alton.

Parents of the groom are Mrs. Joyce Hale and Mr. and Mrs. Don Hale, all of Alton.

Preceding the service the church organist played, "Follow Me," and The Lord's Prayer.

The Rev. Sam Knott, pastor of the church, and the Rev. Lonnie E. Fenton of Taylorville, a brother of the bride, officiated at the double ring candlelight ceremony at 7 o'clock.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white organza over tulle. A ruffle of Chantilly lace traced the sheer yoke which featured a high neckline.

Matching lace cuffed the bishop sleeves and trimmed the full skirt which was enhanced with a chapel train accented with a panel of organza and tiny lace ruffles.

Her fingertip veil of bridal illusion was bordered with lace and secured to a camelot headpiece. She carried a bouquet of pink and red roses intermingled with white baby's breath.

Mrs. Tina Arico and Miss Rhonda Fenton, both sisters of the bride, served as matron of honor and bridesmaid.

They were attired in long gowns created in pink chiffon embellished with tiny rosebuds. Each carried an arrangement of red roses with sprigs of baby's breath.

Jennifer Neidhardt, a niece of the bride, was the flower girl, and Devin Hale served as the ringbearer.

She wore a pink frock similar to the adult attendant, and also carried a small bouquet of red and pink roses.

Craig Hale attended the groom as best man. Dennis Hale was the groomsmen and Walter and Jody Fenton, brothers of the bride, seated the guests.

Both the rehearsal dinner and reception was held in the church fellowship hall.

The bride is a 1976 graduate of South High School. A 1976 graduate of East Alton High School, the groom is serving with the U.S. Marine Corps and is attending the University of Texas in Austin, where they are now residing.

Worthen-Conreux

Miss Laura Ann Conreux, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Conreux, 2701 Whippoorwill Lane, and Dennis Edward Worthen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Worthen, 4118 Stearns Ave., were united in marriage on Aug. 22 at the First United Presbyterian Church.

The Rev. David Maxton officiated at the double ring ceremony at 6 p.m. before an altar decorated with bouquets of peach and white flowers with greenery.

Organist Isabel Schmidt accompanied Mrs. Karen Cline as she sang, "Sunset, Sunset," "Evergreen," "One Hand, One Heart," and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the former Miss Conreux chose a white knit chiffon over tulle gown fashioned with a fitted bodice accented with reem-broidered lace and seed pearls, and repeated on the high neckline and cuffs of the full bishop sleeves.

The skirt was designed with a side drape effect also enhanced with a lace trim as was the chapel train.

She wore a Point d'esprit lace camelot cap, etched with pearls, to secure her fingertip veil bordered with a delicate scallop lace. Her bouquet was a silk cascade style of white roses, peach rosebuds, stephanotis, peach starfishes and baby's breath.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Mary Jo Paige, a sister of the bride, and the bridesmaids included Miss Beverly Kostyoshok, Miss Kenna Corzine and Mrs. Julie Worthen, sister-in-law of the groom.

They selected identical peach gowns fashioned with spaghetti strap bodices, and softly flowing skirts complemented with peach lace jackets.

Each attendant carried a colonial bouquet of peach carnations and white daisies interspersed with baby's breath.

A niece and nephew of the groom, Emily and Billy Worthen, served as flower girl and ringbearer. She was dressed in an apricot frock enhanced with a ruffle, accented the neckline and a self fabric belt which marked the natural waistline. She carried a miniature bouquet to match the adult attendants.

The groom chose Danny Monroe as best man. Tom, Mike, and Bill Worthen, brothers of the groom and Bob Conreux, the bride's brother, completed the corps of groomsmen and ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Conreux wore a formal apricot gown dress crested with a V-neckline and pleated cape.

ATTEND FAIR. Three representatives from St. Elizabeth Medical Center in Granite City attended the third annual Doctor's Fair at Southern Illinois University School of Medicine in Springfield. From left Jack Grieves, Peggy Pohlman and Steve Spurgeon, MD, here talk with John Record, coordinator for the Doctor's Fair and SIU's Practice Opportunity Program. Forty-six communities talked with approximately 200 students and residents during the day-long meeting. The fair was hosted this year by Memorial Medical Center.

Youths attracted to Scout 'School Night'

"School Night for Scouting," a nationwide recruiting program for the Boy Scouts of America held Thursday night, attracted several hundred would-be Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts locally.

At various schools and churches in the Cahokia Mound Council, 321 potential Cub Scouts and 39 potential Boy Scouts attended. Meetings were held in 26 various locations.

The youths and their parents received information on the Scouting programs and were invited to join various Cub Scout Packs and Boy Scout Troops.

Scout officials also reported that five new sponsoring groups indicated they wanted to sponsor Scout units.

Aug. 31 membership figures for the Cahokia Mound Council listed a total of 2,202 members in 101 units.

The goal for the end of the year is 2,988 members in 118 units.

According to a Boy Scout spokesman the report on the Thursday night recruiting drive is not complete as they have not heard from 11 meeting areas.

It was noted that recruiting for the Explorer program for high school and college youth was handled differently and hard to judge when various pests hold what they call "First Nighters" for prospective new members.

Persons or youths seeking information on Cub Scouting, Boy Scouting, or Exploring may contact the local Boy Scout office, 2015 Delmar Ave., telephone 878-0886.

Due to a scheduling problem Cub Scout Pack and Boy Scout Troop 13 will hold their school night on Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at St. Elizabeth School.

Operation Lifesaver being launched in area

Area police departments, in cooperation with the Illinois Railroad Grade Crossing Safety Council, are launching "Operation Lifesaver" in the Quad-City area.

From 1955 to 1980 over 2,900 motorists and pedestrians lost their lives at railroad grade crossings in Illinois. Additionally, thousands of injuries occurred and property damage has been a multi-million dollar loss.

Coordinating "Operation Lifesaver" in this area is Fred Greening, captain of police, Chicago and North Western Transportation Company.

Films, speakers and literature for both adult and youth groups, such as service clubs, fraternal organizations and schools are available.

Organizations wishing a program may contact Capt. Greening by writing to: Box 27, Madison, Ill., 62260; or telephoning him at 876-6116.

In 1976 the Illinois Railroad Grade Crossing Safety Council was formed to combat this traffic problem.

"Operation Lifesaver" is divided into a "3-E" effort: Education of the driving public about the dangers that exist at railroad grade crossings; enforcement of existing traffic laws governing grade crossings; engineering grade crossings to provide the greatest safety for both motorist and train crew.

State agencies are continuing to use available state and federal funds joined by local and railroad dollars to sustain signal installations, crossing improvements, and grade separations to provide greater safety and convenience to the public.

However, the fact that 70 percent of the accidents are occurring at crossings with active warning devices indicates that more than crossing devices are required to stop the needless loss of life, injuries and property damage, according to Capt. Greening.

"Adults driving autos, and children, must learn and be aware of dangers. We think we have a variety of programs, geared to different age levels that will help get the message across," Greening said.

Crickets invade homes

By CATHERINE R. MAUCK
Home Economics Adviser

As summer slips into fall, and nights turn cooler, field crickets are invading homes and becoming nuisances.

The shiny black insects walk through cracks in foundations and under and around doors and windows that don't seal properly. Crickets come in when evening temperatures begin to fall.

Crickets are cold-blooded. They have to keep warm to keep active. In addition, the things they've been feeding on during the summer are starting to dry out—like roadside weeds and garden crops.

Once inside, crickets will search out other food sources. They'll eat anything containing starch, like sizing from wallpaper, wool in carpets and glue in book bindings; fruits, vegetables and meat—and even other crickets.

Chances are, the way you'll discover crickets in your home is to hear the characteristic chirping sound the males make by rubbing their wings together in a "washboard-bow" effect.

Homeowners can use a foundation spray of diazinon to prevent these walk-in pests. Be sure to follow the label directions carefully. It might also help to spray cracks and crevices indoors, with a ready-to-use can of 0.5 percent propoxur, diazinon or chlorpyrifos.

University enrollment sets record

Despite fewer high school graduates, enrollments at Illinois colleges and universities set a new record in 1980-81, newly available figures show.

A total of 214,218 attended the 157 institutions of higher learning, compared with 665,272 the previous year and 664,535 the year before. The University of Illinois at Champaign, Illinois State U. at Normal, Northern Illinois at DeKalb and Eastern Illinois at Charleston had freshman enrollment earlier than usual this year because of overcrowding.

Richard Wagner, executive director of the Illinois Board of Higher Education, said some officials had been expecting a decline in enrollment last year but when "young people can't find jobs, they go back to school."

He expects an even greater number of students this fall.

Richard Bentley, researcher for the Federation of Independent Illinois Colleges and Universities, disagrees. He foresees a one percent drop in 1981-82, starting this month.

The volume of students graduating from high schools has been decreasing since 1970.

Tom Snyder, a researcher for the National Center for Educational Statistics in the U.S. Department of Education, believes the 12,100,000 national college enrollment in 1980-81 will prove to be the peak attendance figure.

Seek to limit state employee medical costs

The Illinois departments of insurance and personnel will begin a program to contain costs of medical care for state employees.

The joint effort by the two agencies will seek to identify and establish ways of making quality medical care available to employees and dependents at the most affordable cost.

The rapid increase in recent Blue Cross premiums makes it painfully clear that the state must begin a full-scale cost containment program, Governor James R. Thompson said. "Our employees can't expect the state to pay everything possible to keep the value of their benefits intact."

Louis Giordano, director of the personnel department, which administers state employees' health insurance and workers' compensation benefits, said efforts will first seek to be communicative where the state is a major employer, like Springfield. "We're expecting another 20 to 25 percent increase for next year's Blue Cross premiums," Giordano said. "With the help of employees, Blue Cross and the medical community we hope to trim that increase to a more reasonable level."

"As one of the largest employers in Illinois and the largest purchaser of health insurance, the state is in a position to influence the method in which medical care is delivered."

Included in the state's new initiative is the establishment of a five-member committee to gather employee criticism and suggestions and take an active part in formulating cost containment measures. The committee will consist of a representative selection of state health program enrollees.

CRASH ON MADISON AVENUE INJURES 3

David Dugan, 22, of 2045 Fourteenth St. was charged with failing to yield the right-of-way at 11:45 p.m. Monday after the left side of his car, eastbound on 90th Street, was hit by the front of the southbound pickup of Jesse Cole, 2613 Myrtle Ave. Dugan was taken to St. Elizabeth Medical Center. Also injured were two of the passengers in the other vehicle, Ellis Mae Cole, 2613 Myrtle Ave., and her son, Cory Cole of the same address. The Dugan auto came to rest against a small tree on the lawn of Francis Jones, 2978 Madison.

Photograph stolen goods as evidence

Gov. James R. Thompson on Thursday approved House Bill 583, which allows the prosecution to introduce pictures of stolen property as evidence rather than holding the evidence until after the trial.

Under current law, stolen property is kept by law enforcement agencies until the trial is completed. The

One percent sales tax is more than GC needs to balance its budget; quarter-cent might provide enough

Here we are again. Granite City has proposed another tax and once again the aldermen are under fire from taxpayers to select it down. It is a scene we have seen often in the last few weeks.

First a utility tax and then a tax on liquor stores, bars and restaurants. Both ideas "hit the dust" after objections from the public and businessmen.

Now the city is proposing a one percent sales tax. Auto dealers were the first to be heard from in the Forum of the Press-Record, and aldermen say they also are hearing objections from other quarters. Let's face it; Granite City's general fund is in bad shape. The choices are simple:

(1) Impose a new tax, (2) raise property taxes or (3) keep borrowing. We keep the city afloat.

Taxpayers as well as aldermen are going to have to admit that the only responsible way to get the city back on sound fiscal legs is to raise more revenue. Sales tax may be more palatable to the average homeowner than higher real estate taxes.

Perhaps a compromise is in order. The latest city cash flow chart shows the one-cent Retailer Occupation Tax (sales tax) collected by the state for the city will raise an estimated $1,892,274 for the city. That figure is after the state subtracts two percent of the tax, or $37,445, for collecting it.

That means an identical one-cent sales tax collected locally would raise approximately $1,330,000 a year. (The present 5/4-cent tax provides 4 cents for the state, 1 cent for the city and 4 cents for mass transit. The city's proposal would make this 6/4 cents, including 2 cents for the city government.)

Granite City does not need $1.9 million a year to get out of its fiscal difficulty. It may need only $300,000 to $400,000 to balance the budget, plus some to get it through the two or so months between the end of the fiscal year and the receipt of the first collection of taxes.

Even if the city returns laid-off police, dispatchers, firemen and others to their jobs, $1.9 million a year in additional income could leave the city government in an unusual situation, rich and that would not be very popular with taxpayers.

We suggest the aldermen give careful thought to collecting less than a full cent sales tax. One-quarter of a cent helps keep buses running in this area and is not a small sum of money when collected city-wide.

Another quarter-cent would raise the sales tax from 5/4 percent on non-food items to 5/8 percent (which few would be likely to complain about) while raising $75,000 a year for the city.

That could be enough to balance the current city budget while still allowing some of the laid-off city employees to return to work.

Or, a half-cent or three-quarter-cent tax could be considered. Although a quarter of a percent sales tax does not seem to be much, on a $10,000 stereo, it comes to $25, and on a $1,000 stereo, it is $2.50 more.

We have lost too many car dealers in the area to high interest rates and a slow economy. Local dealers have a point. Adding $100 to the price of a car with a one percent sales tax could drive many buyers to Collinsville, Edwardsville or St. Louis to buy the same car cheaper. If the added tax is only $25 or $50, many buyers might be willing to pay that to guarantee local repairs while the car is under warranty.

An extra $2.50 on a stereo is less likely to drive a buyer away than would a $10 tax. The city has been striving to find $400,000 to support its budget. A quarter-cent could raise that, plus enough to collect the tax and still return some needed city employees to their jobs.

Granite City aldermen would be remiss in their duties if they pass a one-cent city sales tax tomorrow night without giving full consideration to a lesser tax. Too large a tax would be counterproductive, reducing the tax receipts by shrinking the volume of sales.

Don't zone so every site is a lobbying battleground

Another burning issue before the City Council is the proposed adoption of a new zoning ordinance. Some say that it could foster future corruption by leaving too much power in too few hands regarding proposed commercial sites.

Many of those who oppose the Realtors' stand do not dispute the Realtors' stand nor do they dispute the Realtors' stand nor do they dispute the Realtors' stand nor do they dispute the Realtors' stand.

Realtors concede that many of their opponents have good motives. But the real estate brokers and agents fear that the sincere are naively allowing "the wolf to be pulled over their eyes" and are being taken advantage of by persons with other motives.

Zoning essentially is not for or against various types of development. It seeks to separate conflicting property usage for the benefit of all.

The problem as a city matures is that what once seemed like an ideal plan no longer is appropriate. Planning must adapt to reality, must recognize that circumstances change.

When Granite City High School was built on Madison Avenue, it was planned that its location was too far away—at the end of the town rather than in the middle.

There is currently a small group of individuals in our city, who are trying to divide our community by spreading false information and creating a negative attitude toward anything the city administration has endorsed.

We live in a wonderful country and city, and your city administration works continually to improve the living standards and conditions in our town by endorsing many different projects. With a prayer for God's help we can overcome many of the obstacles that stand in the way of improving our community, but we must respect one another and emphasize the many good attributes of our community instead of resorting to constant criticism.

Our city administration has encountered many challenges in the last 11 years and we feel we have been successful in solving many of our problems. This

St. John's United Church of Christ on Namek Road was far out in the rural area when it was built more than a century ago, now it is in the heart of the city.

Johnson Road used to be a seldom-used county lane. Fehling Road didn't go all the way to the city limits. Namek Road was a two-lane road in the 1960s; Pontoon Road still is, but ought not to be that narrow. Maryville Road couldn't take you from north to south without a detour.

To say that once entirely residential streets like Madison Avenue need to stay that way forever cannot be right. It is a city's duty to plan for the future with considerable commercial and governmental use.

It is obvious that Namek Road's principal utilization now is shopping. Parts of Johnson Road and Pontoon Road also have commercial value.

The issue is whether every parcel of property must become a battleground, a subject of lobbying by aldermen, or whether the city government should set aside in advance a particular street or block or site for commercial development.

Realtors advance commercial zoning could benefit all by expanding the tax base, which pays for governmental services, and by encouraging businesses to locate in places where their activities are compatible with neighboring property.

was made possible only through the cooperation, respect and confidence of the citizens of Madison.

We are asking our citizens to take an interest and have more active role in our City government by making suggestions and recommendations to your city officials for the betterment of our community. We need your help, trust, and confidence to make Madison one of the best communities in our country.

In closing we would like to Tighten controls on city spending

Department heads in Granite City government departments may find it more difficult to make unauthorized purchases since a new system was implemented Tuesday requiring three signatures on any request for a purchase order.

Orders issued by Mayor Paul Schuler Tuesday require that any material request form be signed by the department head, the city clerk and the chairman of the city council committee which oversees that department. Only after a purchase order is issued, it demands.

"In cases of emergencies, verbal approval of the committee chairman and two other signatures are required. (Emergencies to be determined by the committee chairman and the city clerk's signature.)"

"This procedure is felt to give the city fathers a better control over the expenditures prior to the actual expenditure taking place," the letter says. It also said that the procedure was designed "in an effort to curtail unnecessary expenditures and to have committees and their chairmen gain more knowledge into the operation of the department that is under their jurisdiction."

The order was reviewed by the city council Tuesday night and was made a part of the minutes of the meeting.

City Street Superintendent Lionel P. Schuler commented, "I can foresee a problem in emergency situations where we don't have time to contact the people at all hours for emergency needs. If an alarm system is going out, or a pump, setting a hold of the chairman or city clerk could be a problem."

"I will do my utmost to work within the framework," he pledged. Schuler responded, "There will be some flexibility, I'm sure. I think the aldermen want to become more involved and it probably is a good thing to do." He warned against imposing "additional restrictions, predicting, 'This is really going to be cumbersome as it is.'"

Alderman Warren Deatour commented, "I have heard may times that purchases are made and purchases orders then are prepared."

Schuler responded, "That's what we are trying to eliminate."

An accounting of current city funds attached to the orders shows that, with the receipt of the first tax funds from this summer's collection, the city's checkbook balances total $663,227, certificates of deposit total $716,861, savings accounts amount to $220,937, for a total of $1,071,125.

Also due to the city are securities totaling $1,317,000 under agreements of repurchase, with the repurchases scheduled between Sept. 1 and Oct. 22. None are for the general fund, according to David Nolan, administrative aide to the mayor.

"Where we are in trouble is in the general fund. The general fund is still on a 15 day to 15 day period trying to keep money in the bank to make payments on payroll checks and other obligations. It's a day to day thing," Nolan said, noting that the proposed one percent sales tax in the city would help balance the general fund.

The checkbook balance for the general fund is $308,668, "and that might be gone by now," Nolan commented. Other checkbook balances are in the motor fuel tax fund, the city's health plan, the payroll account, the sewage funds, workmen's compensation, the 19th Street overpass, federal revenue sharing, bond issues and other funds.

Likewise, savings account balances and certificates of deposit are in the health plan, bond issues, motor fuel taxes, sewer funds and others, which cannot be used for the general fund, he added.

"If the (general fund) is kind of like my home checkbook. It's day to day," Nolan summarized.

New Army helicopter is demonstrated here

Success stories generally do not occur everyday but the modernized Army's CH-47D Model helicopter fits this mold. The helicopter was put through its paces during a flight demonstration at St. Louis Area Support Center (SLASC), Granite City, Saturday afternoon.

The Chinook, as it is referred to, has been used principally for the past 16 years for airborne medium lift tasks. The newly fielded D Model has been modernized using A, B and C models.

The demonstration at SLASC included the transport of the Army's two and one half ton truck and a Rough Terrain Fork Lift, weighing 23,500 pounds. While this helicopter has been putting on such demonstrations at military bases throughout the country, it was the only appearance scheduled in the St. Louis area.

Thus far, the modernization approach of the CH-47 in comparison to the Jeanne A. Causey, daughter of retired Army Major and Mrs. Alfred E. Fuller of 1 Miami Court, Granite City, has completed a U.S. Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps field training encampment at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas.

During the encampment, cadets received survival and small arms training and instruction in streamer line doctrine. They also had the opportunity to observe careers in which they might want to serve as Air Force officers. The cadet is a student at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

CREWS LIQUOR IT'S STILL QUICKER!

THEFT FROM TRUCK

Items worth about $209 were stolen from the enclosed bed of a truck of Park Ryffel, 2650 Edwards St., parked in the driveway of that address between 3:30 and 4:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Three padlocks and one lock had been broken and the rear enclosure of the truck were broken and one door was damaged when it was picked open. Missing are five cases of canned soda, one case of soda in three cans, four packages of cups, 15 sandwiches, a box of sugar, two coin changers, a can of coffee and about $75 worth of change.

Services held for Millard Dickerson

Funeral services were conducted at 10 a.m. Saturday, Sept. 19, for Millard T. Dickerson, 83, of 3101 Myrtle Ave., at Calvary Baptist Church with the Rev. Chester Parker officiating. Burial was in Sunset Hill Cemetery, Edwardsville Township.

Mr. Dickerson died at 2:10 a.m. Thursday, Sept. 17, 1981, at St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

He is survived by his wife, two sons, two daughters, a brother, 13 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

Two meetings relative to unemployed relief aid have been held by a committee from the city council since the last session of that body a week ago at which municipal assistance to the jobless was endorsed. Friday evening a conference was held with officials of two labor locals, No. 397 and 61, at which the unions heartily agreed to co-operate with the city in furnishing jobs for both union and non-union men. At the last aldermanic meeting, a motion, was passed appropriating $1,500 to be spent in extra street department work such as cleaning alleys, cutting weeds, trimming trees, etc.

A committee of the state study commission on Horseshoe Lake development will seek the cooperation of the state conservation commission in a meeting set for Sept. 24 at Springfield. It was reported at a commission dinner-meeting Tuesday at Fehling's restaurant. Henry Karandjoff, chairman of the commission, State Representative Ralph Smith of Alton and State Senator James O. Monroe of Collinsville plan to secure a team of state engineers to survey Horseshoe Lake area to determine the amount of space and the engineering projects that would be required in developing it into a state recreation area.

Granite City became a "Home Rule" municipality under provisions of the new Illinois Constitution Monday night in city council action approving a new tax levy that will raise the 1971 tax rate approximately 20 cents per $100 assessed valuation. In adopting a levy bill calling for extension of $2,066,121 in tax funds, collectible in 1972, council members also approved an accompanying certification of Granite City as a Home Rule City — a factor that changes greatly the city's taxing program. Under Home Rule provisions, however, all rate limitations are removed and the city has unrestricted taxing power.

Firemen's rodeo fun for everyone

Press-Record Photos by Pat Foley

ANNUAL FIREMEN'S RODEO sponsored by the Madison County Firemen's Association proved to be more than just fun for teams representing several local departments and auxiliaries which took overall honors in their divisions. Events during the day-long rodeo included traditional bucket brigades and tugs-of-war in addition to an event similar to parking lot hockey, only using fire hoses and a beer keg, and another barrel event which also used two fire hoses to push a barrel suspended freely on a wire high above the participants. One of the Mitchell department's women's teams won overall honors in the women's division winning first place in three of the four events. The Long Lake junior firemen also took overall honors having won three first place ribbons. Team One of the State Park department were the overall winners in the men's division.

Housing pact revised; pension update coming

By ED GURNEY
The Madison County Housing Authority board last week approved a revised contract with its employees and announced proposed improvements in the employees' pension plan.

The revised contract is expected to satisfy the federal Department of Housing and Urban Development, which objected to the contract when it was first approved last April.

Executive Director Janet Haroian said the revisions involved elimination of some fringe benefit improvements. Those fringe improvements, translated into dollar figures, gave the employees a higher increase in compensation than permitted by HUD.

Most employees last spring received the maximum 10 percent raise authorized by HUD. More fringe benefits would have given employees the equivalent of more than a 10 percent increase, Haroian said.

Two negotiating sessions were held recently to work out the contract revisions. Among those attending was a representative of the employees' union, Local 322 of the Teamsters. A HUD representative also attended one of the sessions, Haroian said.

The revised contract will now be sent to HUD for its approval. It must also be ratified by the union members.

Much of the discussion about the contract at the board meeting involved union dues. Commissioner Richard Hunter of Glen Carbon proposed specifying the amount of union dues that can be charged to the members.

He was told the monthly dues are now $10, but that the figure is not specified in the contract. His hope was to protect the employees from big dues increases.

The housing authority deducts the dues from union members' pay checks and forwards the amount to the Teamsters.

Hunter's motion died for lack of a second. Commissioner Paul Bargiel of Madison said, "I just don't think it falls within our responsibility."

Hunter said he also questioned the value of the union to the employees because the housing authority is limited — by HUD — in the amount of pay increases and benefits it can give. "I question whether the employees realize this," Hunter said.

He asked whether the board could write an informational letter to the employees.

Board Chairman Reese Hoskin of Collinsville said the employees have the option of discontinuing membership in the union.

Bargiel said the authority is "not dealing with a bunch of kids." The employees are "responsible adults" who asked the Teamsters to be their sole bargaining agent, he said. "What's between them and their union is their problem," he said.

The contract covers the year 1981. In a related matter, the board directed Haroian and its attorney, Joe Hill, to begin negotiations for the 1982 contract.

Haroian said the employees may forego all or part of their pay raise next year because of an increased contribution by the authority to the pension fund.

DISORDERLY CHARGE

Danny P. Hutchins, 31, of 2822 N. Main St., was arrested at home last week and charged with disorderly conduct for allegedly failing to comply with a court restraining order on a complaint signed by his estranged wife, Sherry Hutchins, 2701 Buxton Ave., who said Hutchins had been at her residence shouting, yelling and causing a general disturbance.

PICKUP BURGLARY

An eight-track stereo, valued at $100, and a tool pouch containing assorted tools, worth $50, were stolen from the pickup truck of Domingo Valentin, 2457 Benton St., reported last week.

The authority would pay the 5½ percent that the employees now pay, so the employees would actually be taking home more pay, the executive director explained.

The board authorized Haroian to begin the paperwork so that the pension plan proposal can be sent to HUD later this month along with the proposed 1982 budget.

Poor pension benefits was cited as "one of the reasons employees joined a union last year."

Deferment of SIUE tuition being offered

The Student Work and Financial Assistance office at SIUE has announced the fee deferment schedule for the fall quarter.

For students who qualify for financial aid but will not receive it before registration, fees must be paid, applications for deferments will be available in the SWFA office (662-3880) Sept. 22-24 from 8:30 a.m. until 9 p.m., Sept. 28 from 8:30 a.m. to 7 p.m., Sept. 29 from 8:30 a.m. until 5 p.m. and Oct. 2 from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Students are not eligible for deferments if they have unpaid obligations at the university and their financial aid will not cover the current quarter tuition and fees as well as the owed amount. Nor are they eligible if they are past due on their National Direct Student Loans.

Praises labor, management in settling long strike

Governor James R. Thompson praised contractors and labor last week in reaching a tentative settlement in the heavy equipment operators strike that has stopped work on billions of dollars of construction projects in Northern Illinois since July 30.

"Both sides are to be congratulated for the give and take attitude and the non-stop negotiations that have prevailed since I met with them last Thursday," the governor said.

"At that time, I asked the contractors and labor's representatives to meet around the clock if necessary to bring an end to this crippling strike. They have done that and for that we all can be proud of them."

"They have met almost non-stop since last Thursday and concluded at 6 a.m. this morning following 19 straight hours of solid negotiations with a tentative settlement."

The representatives of Operating Engineers Local 150 and the Mid-America Regional Bargaining Association are to be congratulated. Now the proposed contract will be presented to both groups for ratification.

Thompson entered the negotiations last Thursday at the request of both sides only after each side agreed that they would continue negotiations until a settlement was reached and that all issues would be discussed by both sides. They did that.

The tentative settlement ended more than six months of negotiations on the contract that expired last July 1.

The governor also praised James Kiley and Terry Bedgood of his staff for their persistence in working with both sides during the marathon negotiations.

"Jim Kiley and Terry Bedgood helped keep the atmosphere calm and collected during the last five days and helped bring about this tentative settlement. We owe them our thanks, too," Kiley is assistant to the governor for Economic Development and executive director of the Illinois Council for Jobs and the Economy. Bedgood is assistant director for Government Operations.

Crime down in Madison

According to the monthly police report, submitted to the Madison city council last week, there has been a 26 percent decrease in crime for the month of August 1981, compared to the month of August 1980.

A total of $1,980 in fine money was received from the courts.

Burglaries were down from 16 in August 1980 to only 7 this past month, with thefts down from 14 to 11, and assault and batteries down from 7 to 6.

Robberies were up, by three, 0-3, and auto thefts remained the same at three each August.

Madison made a total of 132 arrest during the month, including traffic and juvenile arrests.

Total reported radio, telephone and logged entries for August was 3,321.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION
TO: THOMAS WOOD III, FATHER OF RICKY WOOD, A MINOR 81-J-441 ADDRESS UNKNOWN AND TO All Whom It May Concern:

Take notice that on the 14 day of August, 1981 a petition was filed under the Juvenile Court Act by Asst. State Atty. Daniel R. Schatznik in the Circuit Court of Madison County entitled "In the interest of Ricky Wood, a minor", and that in Circuit courtroom at Edwardsville on the 6 day of October, 1981 at the hour of 2:00 P.M., or as soon thereafter as this cause may be heard, an adjudicatory hearing will be held upon the petition to have the child declared to be a ward of the court under that Act. The court has authority in this proceeding to take from you the custody and guardianship of the minor. Now, unless you appear at the hearing and show cause against the petition, the petition may be taken for confessed as against you and each of you, and an order judgment or decree entered. Willard V. Portell Clerk. 30 9 21

STATE OF ILLINOIS, COUNTY OF MADISON as in the Circuit Court for the Third Judicial Circuit, Madison County, Illinois

United States Savings Bank of Newark, New Jersey vs. Thomas P. Eilers, et al.

Thomas P. Eilers, et al.

The requisite affidavit for publication having been filed notice is hereby given you

Owners Defendants, in the above entitled suit that the said suit has been commenced in the Circuit Court of Madison County, Illinois, by the said plaintiff against you and other defendants praying for the foreclosure of a certain mortgage conveying the premises described as follows, to-wit:

Lot One Hundred Fifty-Three (153) and the Northeast One-half of Lot One Hundred Fifty-Four (154) in Block Six (6) in McKinley Place, Beck with and McCasland's Subdivision of fractional part Northwest Quarter of Northwest Quarter of Section 30, Township 3 North, Range 9 West of the Third Principal Meridian as the same appears on the Plat thereof, recorded in Plat Book 18 on Page 41 of the Recorder's Office of Madison County, Illinois; c-k-a 1974 Rhodes, Madison, IL.

which said mortgage was made by Thomas P. Eilers, as Mortgagor, to M. E. Hoffman Company, as Mortgagee and recorded in the office of Madison County, Illinois as Doc. No. 221-6960.

And by virtue of the said summons was duly issued out of the same Court against you as provided by law, and that the said suit is now pending.

Now therefore, unless you, the said above named defendants, file your answer to the Complaint in the said suit or otherwise make your appearance therein, in the office of the Clerk of the Third Principal Meridian in Madison County, Illinois, on or before the 13th day of October, 1981, default may be entered against you at any time after that day and a decree entered in accordance with the prayer of said Complaint.

Dated: September 1, 1981. Edwardsville, Illinois.

News notes

National Steel Corp., owner of Granite City Steel, will expand its pipe and tube plant in Liberty, Tex., by 50,000 tons a year. It serves the oil drilling industry, making tubular products used in exploring and developing new oil and natural gas resources. Completion is scheduled for early 1982.

A quarter-million union members and allies took part in a "solidarity" rally Saturday in Washington, D. C., to object to federal domestic policies and to urge "a humane and just society."

The eighth annual Republican Women's Clubs dinner dance will be held from 5 to 10 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 27, at the Edwardsville American Legion clubhouse.

Robert G. Hardy, Highland, Donald R. Lewis, and Max E. Crowe, both of Belleville, and John L. Hert, Columbia, will receive the 33rd degree Saturday, Sept. 26, at the Edwardsville Township Park on Center Grove Road.

The SIUE International Hospitality Program is inviting international students, host families and friends to its annual fall picnic at 2 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 26, at the Edwardsville Township Park on Center Grove Road.

Gov. Thompson has signed a law removing the state's authority over large floating operations. The action was attacked by residents who oppose "parking" of barges along the Great River Road scenic shoreline from Alton to Grafton.

Ray Wayne Howland, 37, of 2337 Lincoln Ave., was charged with resisting arrest, criminal damage to property and disorderly conduct in state complaints following a disturbance behind 2545 E. 25th St. at 7:20 p.m. Saturday.

Darlene Moore, 2508 Kirkpatrick Homes, alleged that Howland, who is her ex-husband, struck her face with a fist and then hit her auto and the auto of a woman friend with his fists before leaving the area.

Police arrived and located Howland in an alley near Kate and East 25th streets. He allegedly was loud and abusive, threatened one police officer and was placed in a squad car. He allegedly kicked the windows and pulled out a gun, and repeatedly, damaging the right window frame.

At the police station, he allegedly refused to cooperate in being booked and his property had to be taken from him by force. He was lodged.

FOOD STAMP THEFT. Five $102 worth of food stamps were reported stolen from the apartment of Linda Seabres, 3933 Kirkpatrick, at 11:30 p.m. Friday. She said someone may have reached through an open window next to the door and then unlocked the door to gain entry. When she returned home, she found her purse was missing. It was located in a trash can near the east walk of the apartment building. The food stamps and medical card were missing.

Naturalist hated cats
 Georges L. Leclerc de Buffon (1707-88), the leading French naturalist of his time, praised dogs highly but disliked cats, saying, "Cats possess an innate malice and perverse disposition which increases as they grow up. They easily assume the habits of society, but never acquire its manners."

 you reap.

There are many good ways to make your money work for you. And some not so good. So don't reap into anything without taking a long, hard look. Especially if you have no savings in reserve.

And if you don't have enough savings, look into U.S. Savings Bonds.
 Because Bonds do make sense.

They guarantee the interest. They're guaranteed against loss, fire, and theft. And the Payroll Savings Plan is a sure, easy way to guarantee savings.
 Federal income tax may be deferred and there's no state or local income tax.

A little is set aside each payday for U.S. Savings Bonds. Your savings will grow until you're ready to reap the rewards of regular saving.

Saving is one of the most important financial decisions you'll ever make.

Take stock in America.

When you put part of your savings into U.S. Savings Bonds you're helping to build a brighter future for your country and for yourself.

Harry S. Truman

THE 33RD PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES WAS HANDLED A HUGE BURDEN WHEN HE TOOK OVER THE NATION'S HIGHEST OFFICE UPON THE DEATH OF FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT. ON APRIL 12, 1945, THERE WAS THE BIG WAR STILL TO BE WON, PROBABLY THE MOST AWESOME DECISION IN HISTORY EVER CONFRONTED AN INDIVIDUAL HAD TO BE MADE TO END WORLD WAR TWO BY USE OF THE POWERFUL ATOMIC BOMB AGAINST JAPAN!

BEFORE HIS POLITICAL CAREER HARRY TRUMAN OWNED A MEATS CLOTHING STORE. THE BUSINESS FAILED AND TRUMAN WORKED 15 YEARS TO PAY THE STORE DEBTS.

BLUNT AND OUTSPOKEN, HE WON RESPECT AS A STRAIGHT-FORWARD MAN...

IN 1950 ANOTHER CRITICAL DECISION WAS MET BY THE PRESIDENT WHO SAID THE BLACK STARS HERE. COMMUNIST TROOPS HAD INVADED SOUTH KOREA. RISKING WAR WITH RUSSIA, WITHIN TWO DAYS PRESIDENT TRUMAN SENT AMERICAN ARMED FORCES TO KOREA. UNFOLDING SOUTH KOREAN RESISTANCE.
